Rev. Dr. Talmage's Analysis of His Character.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—In this years ago the Presbyterian church was sermon, which Dr. Talmage sends from split into the new school and the old Paris, he analyzes the character of the school. The chasm got wider and Saviour and urges all Christians to ex-ercise the qualities which were con-ities were indulged in. Good men on spicuous in Christ's earthly life. There is nothing more desirable than a pleasant disposition. Without it we culties, and soon all the differences cannot be happy ourselves or make were healed, and at Pittsburg they others happy. When we have lost our shook hands and are now to be one temper or become impatient under some light cross, we suddenly awaken to new appreciation of proper equipoise of nature. We wish we had been born with self balance. We envy all those people who bear themselves through come to my house again." He says, self-control we may now have, the down." years, when we will be mellowed and of Christ comes into you, and you go in our nature will grow into larger rel. Now, let bygones be bygones, and proportions and that an iniquity not let us act like Christians." It is all corrected will become the grandfather settled. How? By the gentleness of a whole generation of iniquities. So Christ. that people without the grace of God in the struggle and amid the annoyances and exasperations of life are apt to become worse instead of better.

he tells the truth. No man can correct his disposition. I never knew a man by force of resolution to change his temperament, but by his grace God can take away that which is wrong and put in that which is right, and I know and you know people who since their conversion are just the opposite of what they used to be. In other words, we may by the spirit of God have the disposition of Jesus Christ implanted in our disposition, and we must have it done or we will never see heaven. "If any man has not the disposition of Jesus Christ, he is none

A SPIRIT OF GENTLENESS.

In the first place the spirit of Christ was a spirit of gentleness. Sometimes he made wrathful utterances against Pharisees and hypocrites, but the most of his words were kind and gentle and loving and inoffensive and attractive. When we consider the fact that he was omnipotent and could have torn to pieces his assailants, the wonder is greater. We often bear the persecution and abuse of the world be-Little children who always shy off at a and clambered on him until the people begged the mothers to take them away. Invalids so sore with wounds that they could not bear to have any one come near them begged Christ just to put his hand upon the wound and soothe it. The mother with the sickest child was willing to put the little one in Christ's arms. Self righteous people rushed into his presence with a woman of debased character and said, "Now, annihilate her, blast her, kill her." Jesus looked at ker and saw she was sorry and repentant, and he looked at them, and he saw they were proud and arrogant and malignant, and he said, "Let him that is without sin cast the first stone at her." A blind man sat at the wayside making a great ado about his lack of vision. They told him to hush up and not bother the Master. Christ stooped to him and said, "What wilt thou that I do unto thee?" Gentleness of voice, gentleness of manner, gentleness of life.

We all admire it whether we have any of it or not. Just as the rough mountain bluff and the scarred crag love to look down into the calm lake at their feet and as the stormiest winter loves to merge into the sunshiny spring, so the most precipitate and impulsive and irascible nature loves to think of the gentleness of Christ. How little we have of it! How little patience in treating with enemies! We have so little of the gentleness of Christ we are not fit for Christian work half the time. We do not know how to comfort the bereft or to encourage the disheartened or to take care of the poor. Even our voice of sympathy is on the wrong nitch.

THE HAND OF SYMPATHY.

My sister had her arm put out of joint, and we were in the country and the neighbors came in, and they were all sympathetic, and they laid hold of the arm and pulled and pulled mightily until the anguish was intolerable; but the arm did not go to its place. Then the old country doctor was sent for and he came in and with one touch it was all right. He knew just where to put his finger and just how to touch the bone. We go out to our Christian work with too rough a hand and too unsympathétic a manner and we fail the gentleness of Christ, comes along, puts his hand of sympathy on the healed and the disturbed bones are rejoined. Oh, for this gentleness of

He hears your voice, he responds to that sympathy, and he is saved. You cannot scold the world into anything better. You may attract it into something better. The stormiest wind comes out from its hiding place and says: "I will arouse this sea." And it blows upon the sea. Half of the sea is aroused or a fourth of the sea is aroused, yet not the entire Atlantic. But after awhile the moon comes out, calm and placid. It shines upon the sea and the ocean begins to live. It embraces all the highlands; the beach is all covered. The heart throb of one world beating against the heart throb of another world. The storm could not rouse the whole Atlantic; the moon lifted it. "And I." said Christ, "if I be lifted up will draw all men unto me." Christ's disposition was also one of self-sacrifice. No young man ever started out with so bright a prospect as Christ started out with if he had been willing to follow a worldly ambition. In the time that he gave to the sick he might have gathered the vastest fortune of his time. With his powcause we cannot help it. Christ en- er to popularize himself and magnetize dured it when he could have helped it. official position. No crator ever won the people he could have gained any tained if he had performed his wonder ful cures before the Roman aristocracy. I say these things to let you know what Paul meant when he said, "He pleased not himself." and to show something of the wonders of his selfsacrifice. All human power together could not have thrown Christ into the manger if he had not chosen to go there. All satanic strength could not have lifted Christ upon the cross if he had not elected himself to the torture, to save our race from sin and death and hell he faced all the sorrows of this world and the sorrows of eternity. How much of that self-sacrifice have

It is a subtraction from my comfort and prosperity so that there may be an addition to your comfort and prosperity. How much of that have we? Might not I rather say, "How little have we?" Two children -brother and sister-were passing down the road. They were both very destitute. The lad had hardly any garments at all. His sister had a coat that he had outgrown. It was a very cold day. She said, "Johnny, come under this coat." "Oh, no," he said "the coat isn't large enough!" "Oh." she said, "It will stretch." He comes under the coat, but the coat would not stretch. So she took off the coat and put it on him. Self sacrifice, pure and simple. Christ taking off his robe to that I have built for the honor of my kingdom and by the might of my stnength?" Who has anything of the humility of Christ?

The disposition of Christ was also the spirit of prayer in the sea, prayer on the mountains, prayer in the sea, prayer acong the sick, prayer everywhere. Prayer for little children: "Father, I thank thee that thou hast hidden these things from the wise and prudent and revealed them unto babes." Prayer for his friends, "Father, I will that they be with me where I am." Prayer for his enemies. Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." Prayer for all nations, "Thy kingdom come." How little of that spirit you and I have. How soon our knees get tred. Where is the vial ful lo doors which are the prayers of all the saints? Which of us can keep our mind ten minutes on a prayer without wandering? Not you, not I. Oh, that we might have the spirit of Christ. We want more prayer in the Lamily, more prayer in the legislative hall, more prayer among the seed, more prayer among the caged, more prayer among the church is to be in that direction yet.

While the council of Nuremberg was signing the edict that gave the church its freedom, Martin Luther was away off in a room by himself praying for that accomplishment. Though there was no line of communication between the place where the council was assembled and the room where Martin Luther was praying. Martin Luther suddenly rose from his knees and said 'It is accomplished; the church is free. Victory, victory!" Oh, for this direct line of communication with the throne of God, so that it may be said of us as it was said of Luther, "He got what he asked for!" We want, like Daniel, to pray with our face toward the holy city. We want, like Stephen, to pray gazing into heaven. We want. like Christ, to pray, the Christ who emptied his heart of all its life-blood and then filled it with the sorrows, the woes, the agonies of all nations.

Cold mountains and the midnight air Withessed the ferver of his prayer.

THE SPIRIT OF HARD WORK. The spirit of Christ, I remark lastly, was a spirit of hard work. Not one lazy moment in all his life. Whether he was talking to the fishermen on the beach or preaching to the sailors on the dock, or administering to the rustics amid the mountains, or spending an evening in Bethany, always busy for others. With hands, heart, head busy for others. From the moment he Mig. went out of the caravansary of Beth- At lehem to the moment when the cross plunged into the socket on the bloody mount, busy for others. Does that remind you of yourself? It does not remind me of myself. If we lift a burden, it must be light. If we do work, it must be popular. If we sit in the brilliant. If we have to take hold of a load, give us the light end of the log. In this way to heaven fan us, rock us sing us to sleep. Lift us up toward heaven on the tips of your fingers under a silken sunshade. Stand out of the way, all you martyrs who breasted aica. the fire! Stand out of the way and let this colony of tender footed, modern Christians come up and get their crowns!

What has your Lord done to you, O Christian, that you should betray him? Who gave you so much riches that you can afford to despise the awards of the faithful? At this moment, when Dun, Kelly, for Baltimore. all the armies of heaven and earth and At Newcastle, Sept 26, bark Baasto, Olsen hell are plunging into the conflict, how can you desert the standard? Oh. backslidden Christian, it is not time for you to start anew for God and anew for heaven?

Now, I have shown you that the disposition of Christ was a spirit of gentleness, a spirit of self sacrifice, a spirit of humility, a spirit of prayer, a spirit of hard work-five points. Will you remember them? Are you ready now for the tremendous announcement of the text? "If any man have not the spirit of Christ, he is none of his." Are you ready for that statement? Can we stand up and say, "Yes, we have the spirit of Christ?" Not one of us can make that answer to the full question, and Lam to declare to you there is nocouragement in this subject for Caristian people. You have the seeds of this character planted in your soul. "It doeth not yet appear what we shall be." You might as well blame an acorn for not being an oak of because you are not equal to Christ. You have the implantation within you which will enlarge and develop into the grandest Christian character, and there is no discouragement in this text for you to try to love and serve the Lord. Aim high. Sheathe not your sword until you have gained the last victory. Climb higher and higher until you reach the celestial hills. Crowns bright and radiant for all the victors,

ANOTHER MYSTERIOUS DEATH.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.-Charles F. Peck. 60 years old, a real estate dealer, was found dead at 4 o'clock this morning on the sidewalk. His face was badly crushed, turned downward and the arms were outstretched. There was a deep cut across the bridge of ch Cora B, from St John, and sailed.
VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass, Sept 25—Ard, schs GLOUCESTER, Mass, Sept 25—Ard, schs yon, from the New York hospital, said the man had been dead for some time, but expressed no opinion as to the cause. C. E. Merrill, a clerk em ployed by Mr. Peck, told the police that Mr. Peck had left his office at about 3.40 p. m. yesterday to catch a train for the Catskills, where he intended joining Mrs. Peck today. Before leaving, he went to the bank and drew some money. How much, the clerk did not know, but he had seen Mr. Peck with a large roll of bills He also had his handsome gold watch and chain, which he always carried. Neither money, watch nor chain were on the body.

ST. JOSEPH'S UNIVERSITY

ST. JOSEPH'S UNIVERSITY. Sept 26.-Reorganizing societies is the order of the day. The athletic association has again resumed a bold front. Our respected president, Mr. McLaughlin. recently had the pleasure of introduc ing twenty new members. Literary societies are soon to be reorganized. This step completed, the boys will again be treated to bi-weekly entertainments, which were so encouragingly received last year. A new set of band instruments, twenty-eight is number, has been ordered from Paris and the musicians are jubilant.

Base ball has given place to the rough and tumble Rugby. From observations taken at the first practice game, it appears that St. Joseph's will before the end of the season, possess a fifteen comparing favorably with the teams of her sister colleges. Fathers McManiman and Wheten, B.

A.'s. '95. visited the university Wednesday.

Baby's Own Soap

Like baby himself, though small it brings happiness, because it is so good for baby's skin, and makes him so fresh and nice.

BABY'S OWN SOAP is made from purest vegetable oils, is delicately scented with flower extracts, and is pre-eminently THE nursery soap of Canada. SENENENEN CONGRETION ehigh Valley Comp Striking Miners
