

ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

[Programme for sale in St. Stephen by Master John Thibault and at the book store of G. & W. Wall in Calais at O. P. Treast's.]

Mar. 4.—This week began quite as gayly as last. On Monday evening there were no less than four parties two of which went out of town. A very pleasant and lively party of some fifty ladies and gentlemen left in the train at 8 o'clock for St. John's. The party was the most successful of the season. The ladies were most generally lent them by Hon. William Douglas, ex-M. P. for that purpose. This happy party was arranged and planned by Mrs. T. J. Smith, and Mrs. Waterbury and was one of the jolliest society has yet enjoyed. Dancing began at nine o'clock and was kept up until a late hour when supper was served. The guests then took the train for home and arrived in the early morning having enjoyed themselves greatly.

The Misses saw how the club enjoyed another of its jolly outings on Monday evening. This time Fairbanks was their choice and a very good choice, for there every one enjoyed themselves. The club drove to Fairbanks and then went on their usual tramp. On their return, supper was served and after some time spent in conversation by the ladies while the gentlemen enjoyed a quiet smoke, all were ready to turn their faces towards home. The club intended to have another tramp at an early date.

A through the invitation of the Misses Richardson, a large party of their young friends drove to the Stone House at the Lodge on Monday evening and enjoyed a dance and supper. This was a very merry party, and the young hostesses are congratulated upon the success of it.

Invitations were given yesterday by Mrs. Frederic Ham for a children's party last evening, but so many of the young people being engaged elsewhere it is postponed until to-morrow night.

Mrs. Deinstadt gave a very delightful party at her residence last evening for the amusement of her little daughters Misses Edith and Grace. There were some thirty little girls present, who all looked very pretty in their light gay dresses. The boys were not invited, much to their disgust and to the delight of the girls, for one of the boys remarked, "I never was a house yet big enough to hold a boy comfortably." Games were the chief amusement, and as Mrs. Deinstadt has a happy way of entertaining, very young people, all the young guests enjoyed it extremely.

Miss Kate Washburne entertained several friends on Wednesday evening last. They first went on a snow shoe tramp to Bide Range, returning to Miss Washburne's home—the rest of the evening was spent in playing duplicate whist. Supper was served at twelve o'clock.

Miss Lillie Eaton entertained the Young People's Whist Club, on Wednesday evening. This time Miss Alice Graham invited a number of her young friends, to join her in a snow-shoe tramp one evening last week. After snow-shoeing for two or three hours, they returned home, and enjoyed walking, and whilst during the latter part of the evening. This was one of our most delightful parties, that was enjoyed last week. Among the guests were: Miss Berta Smith, Miss Cora Algar, Miss Nora Clarke, Miss Kitten Melick, (Cambridge Mass.) Miss May Toller, (Ottawa), Miss Maggie Todd, Miss Florence Cullinan, Miss Ida Boardman, Miss Alice Boardman, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Murchie, Miss L. Tilley, Thomas Blair, George Dexter, Miss Alex. George Downes, Henry Gillespie, Mark Mills, W. A. Mills, Frank Cullinan, Howard Murchie, H. A. S. Pettick and Arthur Murchie.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mowatt, are visiting Mrs. Mowatt's mother, Mrs. Robert Clarke. They are contemplating a trip to Scotland, to spend a few months among Mr. Mowatt's relatives, and expect to sail early in April.

The third annual concert and ball of the St. Croix Rifle Club was held in the Calais Millinery house last Thursday. A number of ladies and gentlemen from Calais and St. Stephen drove to Milltown to attend it. The hall was most artistically decorated with flags, bunting, rifles and deer and moose heads. The music and dancing was unusually gay, and those who were there enjoyed it extremely.

Mrs. Almon Teed gave a very jolly snow shoe tramp for the entertainment of her sister, Miss Rose Brittain, and her friends, on Friday night. Mrs. Teed also entertained, on Monday evening, a party of friends. Music and conversation occupied the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Murchie invited a few friends to a snow shoe tramp and supper at Fairbanks, one evening during the past week.

Mrs. Howard McAllister gave a very pleasant tea party to a number of girl friends on Thursday afternoon, friends of her little daughter, Kathleen.

The reception and drive whist party, given by Mrs. Henry A. Murchie, at her residence last Friday from four to eight o'clock, was greatly enjoyed by the ladies who were present. There were seven tables of whist. After playing two hours the prizes were awarded. Mrs. E. N. Noll and Mrs. Ernest T. Lee received the first prizes, a lovely silver pin tray and a Linotype bon bon dish. The second prizes fell to the lot of Mrs. E. Eaton—a handsome chocolate pitcher—and to Mrs. Harvey, a silver coffee spoon. Mrs. Fred Hall and Miss Annie King were made happy with the "lucky" prizes, which were pretty little dusters. Directly after the distribution of the prizes, supper was served, and the ladies left for their homes, having most thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Mrs. Bolton accompanied by Miss Bolton, left this morning for a short visit in Boston.

Dr. and Mrs. Kingman, of Boston, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Todd.
