WOODSTOCK.

[Progress is for sale in Woodstock by Barry Shaw and Mrs. John Leane & Co.]

MAY 30.—The concert under the auspices of the band, given in the Opera House on the evening of the 24th, was a grand success. The programme consisted of songs, recitations, instrumental music, a drill by a dozen young men in fancy costumes, and some of the best tableaux ever placed in Woodstock.

The scenes were all Columbian. Much credit is due Mr. T. W. Murphy under whose skillful management the tableaux were arranged, and who in a few concise remarks explained the nature of the pictures.

The poses in the opening scene, which represented the "Immortal Christopher" explaining his theory of the rotundity of the world, expressed the amazement and interest which his ideas evoked in the minds of the Queen and Court of Spain.

In the second scene Columbus and the Court were discovered in the attitude of prayer; Isabella, with upraised hands invoking the blessing of Heaven upon the expedition.

The next tableau the scene was changed to the New World, Columbus and his followers met by hostile savages, with uplifted weapons bar the approach of the white men. Columbus with the emblem of Christianity in his left hand and his right hand extended presented a splendid scene, following this—the hostilities have ceased and the Indian Chief and Columbus stand in friendly greeting with a motley crew of Indians and the followers of Columbus in the rear.

The third set portrayed the return of Columbus to the Court of Spain with the Indians, and the final scene was a statue life size of Columbus. The notable characters were well sustained Miss Werner making a very striking "Queen Isabella," several very good numbers were on the programme. Miss Copples sang The Merry Postilion in a charming manner, and was enthusiastically recalled. Miss Gilmore sang Sweet Heather Bells in good style; Miss Isabel Watts gave an amusing recitation in a pleasing manner. Master Harry Dunbar arrayed in Highland costume sang a Highland Lull, with capital effect. Songs by Miss Henderson Miss Werner, and a chorus by Masters Wright, Phillips, Gable, and Dibble, with recitation.

MAY 31.—The Methodist bazaar held on Monday and Tuesday evenings of this week was liberally patronized, and I understand that quite a large sum was realized. Mr. Malcolm Bine was the successful candidate in the competition for the most popular underground manager. Messrs. Ferguson and Matthews also polled a good vote.

The fancy table was presided over by Mrs. Harry Wylie and Miss Lizette Hall, who were assisted by other efficient workers. The sale of work was so good that only two or three articles were left over.

Miss Minnie Proctor and Miss Jennie England had charge of the ice cream booth and were kept constantly at work, as indeed was every one connected with the Fair. The orchestra was in attendance both evenings, and enlivened the proceedings considerably.

Miss MacNamara, of Parraboro, was in town on Tuesday to attend the bazaar, but returned here Wednesday afternoon.

The club orchestra go to Westville next Monday where they will repeat the very successful promenade concert they held here in April. I can assure the Westville people they will hear some excellent music as the boys have won quite a reputation.

The members of the orchestra play in the choir of the Methodist church and also in the Y. M. C. A.

Dr. Gaudet of Moncton was in Springhill on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. He is the medical examiner of the N. B. branch of the C. M.
