Many Activities Planned For the Summer Months At Meeting Held Recently—26th Man Assisted.

The regular monthly meeting of the Brunswick Chapter I. O. O. F. was held at the residence of Mrs. Newcomb, City Line on Tuesday afternoon. The Regent, Mrs. W. L. Pexton presided.

Ways and means of making talent money were discussed and it was decided that each member should hand in at least $2.50 at the end of the summer, the money to be raised as best suited the individual. Simple "Thompson Toss" with strictly war-time refreshments were suggested, with a fee for admission.

Now that the serving of afternoon tea has been discontinued at the Chapter meetings, it is hoped to have other donations to send this man. Thirteen pairs of socks were sent to the Soldier's Comfort Association by the efficient convenor of knitting, Miss Tilton.

It was decided to pay for the upkeep of a tubercular patient at East St. John. The man has already been sent to the hospital and the Chapter proposes to make him their special care.

ADDRESS PRESENTED TO KING AND QUEEN
BY WAR WORKERS

3,000 Women Wait Upon Their Majesties To Congratulate Them on Occasion of Approaching Silver Wedding—King George Replies To Address.

London, July 3.—Three thousand women engaged in war work, representing twenty-two organizations, presented King George and Queen Mary with an address expressing loyalty and extending congratulations upon the approaching silver wedding anniversary of the royal couple, which occurs on July 6th.

It was the first time any British ruler had received such a deputation of women. There are no precedents, therefore, to serve as a guide for marshalling the parade and for the reception.

Among the organizations represented were those of the nurses, the munition workers, the workers on farms, and those more actively connected with the operations in the field.

An address was made by Mrs. F. H. Durham, chief woman inspector in the ministry of labor. King George replied with an address to the women.

The women marched to Buckingham Palace from Hyde Park and in the quadrangle of the Palace they formed in six companies, eight in a line, before the Dias where were the King and Queen.

The King spoke as follows:—"We are touched by the thought that the first expression of loyalty and devotion on the occasion of our silver wedding should come from this representative body of women, who by their services to the country have made the history of our country's share in this the full mobilization of its man power."

"In our visits to various centres we have had opportunities of seeing and appreciating the great part which all the women of our land are taking in all the branches of war service, and everywhere we have been filled with admiration at their achievements, an admiration which we believe to be shared by the whole nation. When the history of our country's share in this is written, no chapter will be more remarkable than that relating to this service. The range and extent of the women's share in this service has been rendered only at the cost of much self-sacrifice and endurance."

"I trust this procession will bring home to those who have not yet realized it the country's need of their help. Sure in hope that your labors soon may have their reward in that decisive and enduring peace toward which we, with all our brave Allies, are ever striving. I wish you God speed. In that happy day I feel that you have nobly shared in securing these priceless results."

ENJOY "WILD YOUTH"

Sir Gilbert Parker's Story Stirs Up a Marriage Question—Same Bill Today.

Sir Gilbert Parker's well-known fiction "Wild Youth" occupies the screen at the Imperial this mid-week and its premiere yesterday was witnessed by large crowds. In fact the Imperial's summer scale of prices and extra-special selections of a pictorial character are attracting picture lovers twice and thrice a week before they were in the habit of going perhaps only once. "Wild Youth" tells of an orphan girl falling into the clutches of a hard-dealing, miserly old farmer, the terror of a large area in Western Canada. That this pretty should become the wife of this old plait was common regret and it soon became known that she was infatuated with a stalwart young rancher of means. This infatuation was reciprocated and the story in its forceful telling goes on to show the unhappiness that oftentimes comes in the path of those who marry at widely different ages. The acting of the piece with Theodore Roberts, Louise Huff, Jack Mulhall, James Neal and other stars was most satisfactory and the scenic investment left nothing to be desired.

Tomorrow and Saturday the Imperial presents the emotional actress and tragedienne Pauline Frederick in Victorien Sardou's famous story "La Tosca." This subject needs little introduction to theatre-goers as it has been for years a standard work and is one of the classics of the stage.

Under the direction of Edward Temple with Dr. Frederick as the heroine of song and story is at her best and the environments of the play will be most elaborate, in keeping with the class of society about which the story is written. Miss Frederick will be supported in this wondrous production by Frank Losee, Jules Raucourt, Henry Hebert and W. H. Forestale. The first of the Imperial's Western two-reelers will also be shown in the week-end programme, a feature especially attractive to the younger generation. The opening one is entitled "The Flying Express."

WOMAN WANTS TO OCCUPY PULPIT

London, June 27.—Miss Maude Royden, joint pastorate at the City Temple, Westminster, has been demonstrating that women are capable of preaching, has not yet succeeded in bringing about the removal of the Bishop's ban on women in the pulpit.

Miss Royden, who is a member of the Church of England and an orator, found it necessary to transfer her seat to non-conformity. The women of the church have been demanding their rights to the franchise of the church, and after a long struggle won their point.

INTERNATIONAL BALL CLUBS ARE NOT TO BE TRANSFERRED NOW

Playing By Jersey City-Buffalo Teams At Hamilton on Dominion Day Gave Rise To Rumors.

New York, July 3.—Joseph J. Lannin, one of the principal backers of the new International League, emphatically denied today that there was any intention of transferring the Newark club to any Canadian city or elsewhere. "None of the International clubs will be transferred, and all of them will finish the playing season as scheduled," said the former owner of the Boston Red Sox today. "The Newark club and its territorial rights will remain intact, and despite any rumors to the contrary the new International League will go through to the end of the season without any change in its clubs or playing circuit, except where like on last Monday, the Jersey City and Buffalo teams played at Hamilton on Dominion Day." That may have given rise to the rumors of transferring which I desire to refute positively.

DO BALLPLAYERS LOAF

IS THE QUESTION

Boston National League Players Are Summoned To Appear Before Brighton Board.

Boston, July 3.—Proceedings to determine the status of professional baseball players under the "work-or-loaf" rule were begun when summonses were sent to 14 players of the Boston National League baseball team ordering them to appear before the draft board in the Brighton District. Braves' Red Smith, Jimmy Smith and Ravings and outfielders Wickland and Massey.

Three others, Walter Rehig, Ray Powell and Joseph Kelly, will enter the naval reserve this week. Captain Charles Herzog, Ed Konetchy and Tom Hughes are the only members of the team who are over the military age.

Fred Dowling, chairman of the draft board, said the inquiry had been undertaken solely in obedience to the "work-or-loaf" order, and without an intention of disrupting the national game.

GOVERNMENT WILL SOON TAKE WIRES

Washington, July 2.—While three cabinet officers were before the commerce committee today advocating the Aswell resolution, empowering the president to take over the telegraph, telephone, cable and radio systems, the house took jurisdiction over the measure from that committee and vested it in the military committee. There was no discussion, and only a viva voce vote when Representative Gordon, of Ohio, moved that jurisdiction be transferred because the measure was urged as a military necessity. Members of the military committee said later they were not opposed to the resolution and undoubtedly would report it favorably.

The Acadias and Y. M. C. I. met in a fast six inning league game in the Military League last evening. The Acadias won by a score of 7 to 2. Panjoly did the hurling for the winners and was never in danger. He also received excellent support.

"Buddy" LaVior was on the mound for the losers and was touched safely frequently. His support was very good, the Acadias' hits being so well placed that it was impossible to field them in time to catch the batters. Garner was the main offender with the stick, collecting two hits, one a double, with the bases full in the fifth, out of three times up. Riley and Milan were the stars for the losers, the latter catching a great game and in addition scoring one of the two runs scored by his team.
