BY TELEGRAPH From Ottawa, (Special to the Tribune.) OTTAWA, April 3. The Premier went West last night. Mitchell is at Montreal. A public dinner will be given him at the St. Lawrence explanation of a package of goods enclosed At York Mills, Yonge street, Toronto, on the Col. Powell publishes this morning an John. in a case of military clothing consigned to his address by Massar Tait of London. He his address by Messrs. Tait, of London. He states that the matter has been greatly mis represented; that the contraband goods consisted of some forty dollars worth of ladies wearing apparel, which was sent by mistake. He had no knowledge of the contents of the package until he received it. The duty lost would be some six dollars. The Toronto printers strike continues, but the master printers having tided over the first difficulty will not yield. The report that Copp, Clarke & Co. had yielded to the demands of the Union is contradicted. Robertson, of the Telegraph, having secured seven printers in the West, they cured seven printers in the West, they were shortly after seduced to desert. He again went West securing eleven more, who are still at work. Both the Globe and Telegraph are prosecuting those leaving employ without notice. The Express' staff of girls are doing well CLEARED.
