TO THE MECHANIC AND MANUFACTURER. out" the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN. It costs but four cents per week; every number contains from six to ten engravings of new machines and inventions; which can not be found in any other publication... It is the established rule of the publishers to insert none but original engravings, and those of the first class in the art, drawn and engraved by experienced persons under their own supervision. TO THE INVENTOR.

The Scientific American is indispensible to come out, but each number contains an Official List of the Claims of all the Patents issued from the United of the Claims of all the Patents issued from the United States Patent Office during the week previous; thus giving a correct history of the progress of inventions in this country. We are also receiving, every week the best scientific journals of Great Britain, France and Germany; thus placing in our possession all that is transpiring in mechanical science and art in these old countries. We shall continue to transfer to our columns copious extracts from these journals of whatever we may deem of interest to our readers.

The SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN will be found a most useful journal to them. All the new discoveries in the science of chemistry are given in its columns, and the interests of the architect and carpenter are not overlooked: all the new inventions, and discoveries appertaining to these pursuits being published from week to week. Useful and practical information pertaining to the interests of mill-wrights and millowners will be found published in the SCIENTIFIC
