

THE GRAND CIRCUIT MEETINGS.

The following tabulated list of entries for the five meetings forming the grand circuit, which began at Cleveland last week, presents the information desired in a convenient form. The saddle race did not fill at any of the meetings. The times are placed against the winners of heats at Cleveland, Buffalo, the best time for each horse being given, and "e" signifies that the horse was entered in the class at the meeting specified:—

WESTERN NOTES.

London rejoices in the possession of a new Turf Association containing the proper kind of men to guarantee payment of purses, break up all jobs, and run all meetings given by them on the square. It is the intention of the Association to give a three days' running and trotting meeting some time this month, about the 26th, when upwards of $1,500 will be given in purses. The track at Newmarket is being put in shape, stands are being repaired, gates hung, fences fixed, and everything essential to the comfort of man and beast is absorbing the attention of the Association. We trust the horsemen will patronize this old track under new management and do their best to make the meeting a grand success. We would warn all in possession of "ringers" and such instruments of fraud to absent themselves from this track, as we are informed the Association intend using all the means in their power to punish any one trying on this nefarious business.

That "little 'oas" from Thameford was not very successful at Toronto. Neil B. says C. V. R. "broke him all up." He did not reach Toronto until the day of race, and was generally gone to pieces. However, he trotted a good race and was as good as any horse at the three-quarter pole. Lack of work, no doubt, had a bad effect. Cheer up, Neil B., there were some other horses "left" besides Dan. Stick to him, and at London some horse will have to trot very fast to beat you. Don't you think "Doc" does too much road work with Dan, and not enough speed-ing? No apology required.

Your journal gives general satisfaction in this part of Canada, and I trust the circulation may increase as it deserves to.
