

“ ill-health or age, that the service of such person has not been satisfactory, the Governor in Council may grant such person a superannuation allowance being less than that to which he would have otherwise been entitled, as to him may seem fit.”

Clause G.

“ If any person to whom this Act applies, is constrained, from any infirmity of mind or body, to quit the Civil Service before the period at which a superannuation allowance might be granted him, the Governor in Council may allow him a gratuity not exceeding one month's pay for each year of his service; and if any such person is so constrained to quit the service before such period, by reason of severe bodily injury received without his own fault in the discharge of his public duty, the Governor in Council may allow him a gratuity not exceeding three months' pay for every two years service, or a superannuation allowance not exceeding one-fifth of his average salary during the then last three years.”

Clause H.

“ If any person to whom this Act applies is removed from office in consequence of the abolition thereof, in order to the improvement of the organization of the department to which he belongs, or is removed or retired from office to promote efficiency or economy in the Civil Service, the Governor in Council may grant him such gratuity or superannuation allowance as will fairly compensate him for his loss of office, not exceeding such as he would have been entitled to if he had retired in consequence of permanent infirmity of body or mind, after adding ten years to his actual term of service.”

Clause I.

“ The allowances and gratuities granted under this Act shall be payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada.”

The same being again read by the Clerk,

On motion of the Honorable Sir Alexander Campbell, seconded by the Honorable Mr. Masson, it was Ordered, That the said amendments be agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk do go down to the House of Commons, and acquaint that House that the Senate doth agree to the amendments made to the last mentioned Bill without any amendment.

A Message was brought from the House of Commons in the following words:—

HOUSE OF COMMONS,

TUESDAY, 22nd May, 1883.

Resolved, That a Message be sent to the Senate to acquaint their Honors that this House agrees to the second and third of their amendments to the Bill 101, intituled: “An Act further to amend ‘The Fisheries Act,’” and disagrees to their first amendment for the reason “that the taking out of Licenses is not compulsory on Riparians or special grantees of the French Crown, whose interests would be protected under the Fishery Laws, as holders of such Licenses.”

Ordered, That the Clerk do carry the said Message to the Senate.

J. G. BOURINOT,

Clerk of the Commons.

On motion of the Honorable Sir Alexander Campbell, seconded by the Honorable Mr. Masson, it was Ordered, That the said Message be taken into consideration at the next sitting of this House.
