hockey team cut down to a workable size for the inter-squad games this week, that run on Thur. and Friday at 5:15.

There are about 30 players (exactly half are rookies) left in camp this year and Drake will be cutting down to about 24 after Friday's game.

The training camp this year was really quite small with only 70 bodies out, down from the camps of the past years that contained over a 100 people.

players this year" stressed Drake, "and I'm happy the way it went with everyone working so hard this year."

around for the games this week is their lock on first place. Kevin Primeau, who is still with camp tryouts. Kevin has outstated that a few of the old pros they also tied them once, but the Huskies on Sat. afternoon.

Coach Clare Drake has his were really running at him, and even Coach Glen Sather had told him to keep his head up.

Primeau will be leaving on a five day road trip with the Oilers to Spokane, and his status with the Bears will likely be known after he returns from the trip.

Coach Drake feels Kevin is capable of playing pro, even if it is not this year, he feels he could break in next year.

The top scorer in the West last season, Primeau stated earlier this week that he would play pro if he was offered a good contract, but at the same time he realizes what an excellent season lies in store if he should come back to the Bears this year.

them all over the field. Rick Clansmen's 35-yard line. The forward pack then stole the ball from the Clansmen's scrum and passed it back to the backfield. With some hard broken-field running, Rick Hallan broke through the Clansmen's backfield to score the game's only try. The Clansmen kept storming back; trying to score some points, but the Golden Bears kept resisting the attacks until time ran out. The final score was 7-0 for the Golden Bears.

been favorable last weekend; but good luck has continually shone upon the Golden Bears' Rugby team's winning ways. Playing a flawless brand of rugby, the Golden Bears' shut-out their opponents three times to capture the city's Second Division Championship.

In their first game, the Golden Bears' scored a 22-0 victory over the Northwesters' Rugby Club. Throughout the game; the Golden Bears' forward pack continually maintained field position, never allowing their opponents an opportunity to score. Rick Hallan, Rob Greene, Bill Ruzychi and Brent Buchanan scored for the Golden Bears. Rick Hallan also converted three tries.

In their second game; the Golden Bears crushed the hapless Leprechaun's Rubgy Club, 38-0. By physically punishing their opponents, the Golden Bears continually drove Thompson, Brent Buchanan and Rob Poole (2) scored tries. Rick Hallan converted 4 tries and kicked 2 penalty kicks to roundout the scoring.

The final match against the Clansmen Rugby Club proved to be no easy push-over. All season, the Clansmen have provided intense competition for the Golden Bears. This encounter was no exception, ensuring everyone an exciting game.

Because of the wet conditions; emphasis was placed on ball control. Both forward packs continually slugged it out, never able to capitalize on any scoring drive. Golden Bear Rick Hallan kicked a 40 yard penalty kick to make the score 3-0 for the Golden Bears at half-time. Both teams came out hitting hard, after the half, driving each other all over the field without scoring any points. With 10 minutes left in the game, the Golden Bears found themselves on the

With their impressive achievements of this season, the Golden Bears will be in Calgary this Saturday to play for the provincial championships. Unfortunately, the Golden Bears will not be playing in any intercollegiate competition. Because several universities have dropped their rugby teams from competition, the Western Intercollegiate Conference has been disbanded. It is a pity. Maybe the Golden Bears could have taken it this year.
