W. E. Bragg, Esq.,
Colorado Fuel and Iron Company,
Trinidad, Colorado.

Dear Mr. Bragg:

It is kind of you to invite me to be present at the Conference next week. It would give me pleasure to accept your invitation, were it not that I feel I have given about all of the time I can afford at the present to Trinidad and its surroundings. My thought will be with you all even if I am not present, and I send you my sincerest wishes for the success of this gathering. In doing this, let me again congratulate you upon the good results which have already attended your patient and zealous efforts. May great good continue to follow all you do.

With kindest regards,

Yours very sincerely,
