Ottawa, 21st. March, 1906.

Sir:-

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of 27th. ultimo relative to the Soney estate and in reply to advise you as follows:-

Reference to the attached copy of an order governing the distribution of the estate, dated 30th. September 1901, will show you how it was decided to divide the estate, also that if the proposed division were now carried into effect in so far as now possible, Albert Soney would get possession of the real estate, including improvements thereon, but would have nothing to receive from the funded insurance money, nor would he be entitled to any of the live stock.

As the estate stands to-day it apparently consists of the following:-

Insurance with accrued interest....	$ 919.83
Live stock (say of value of)	200.00
Real estate.....	200.00
Total	$1,319.83.

The widow received her share of the insurance direct, after her husband's death, and would appear to be entitled now to one-third of the real and personal property, valued hereinabove at $400.00, which would leave an amount of $1,187.50 for division among the six children, which
