

254,004-19

Ottawa, August 11, 1913.

Sir:-

The Department having been reminded that the term of office of the present chief and councillors of the Shesheganing band has expired, I have to request that you will arrange to hold an election for that band on Saturday the 23rd instant. You will accordingly give due notice in the usual manner.

As this band has a population of only about 181, it is not entitled to more than two councillors under section 93 of the Indian Act.

Be good enough to report the results of the election promptly.

Your obedient servant,

Assistant Deputy and Secretary

Wm. McLeod, Esq.,

Indian Agent,

Manitowaning.
