

for Sunday afternoon. Miss Macdonald is a very strong Liberal and a friend of the Reporters. She and I have had some very interesting chats, I in French, on a variety of subjects, but always ending on politics!

My French too improved considerably since Mr. Reporters was in Paris. I don't believe I ever thanked you for all the nice things you said in various letters after that visit. On Saturday night last I received the culmination of my ambitions when I was elected promised me to write to the Quebec Minister of Education, to see if there is any possibility of anything down there. (Mr. Jeanmest is the son of one of your organizers in North Waterloo.) I also spoke to Miss Macdonald, a cousin of Mr. MacCrean, and also a member of our French staff, who is writing to her brother in Quebec on my behalf. Next week Mr. Albee,

Mr. Albee for Christchurch, is coming to visit Miss Macdonald with his daughter, and I am hoping that Mr. Jeanmest will bring the party up here
