

CHAPTER XXVII.

DEFENSE OF COMMON EMPLOYMENT IN CASES NOT INVOLVING THE QUESTION WHETHER THE NEGLIGENT SERVANT WAS A VICE PRINCIPAL.

A. INTRODUCTORY	1349
492. Scope of chapter	1349
493. General statement of what constitutes common employment	1350
494. Provinces of court and jury in determining whether there was a common employment	1352
B. THEORY THAT COMMUNITY OF EMPLOYMENT DEPENDS SOLELY ON WHETHER THE DELINQUENT SERVANT'S NEGLIGENCE WAS A RISK CONTEMPLATED BY THE INJURED SERVANT.....	1353
495. Generally.....	1353
496. Diversity of duties or departments not sufficient to exclude defense of common employment.....	1358
497. Contiguity a material, though not decisive, factor.....	1359
498. Illustrative cases of common employment.....	1360
499. Disconnection of duties, when so great as to negative implied acceptance of the risk of a fellow servant's negligence.....	1378
C. THEORY THAT COMMON EMPLOYMENT DEPENDS ON IDENTITY OF DEPARTMENTS OF WORK OR CONSOCIATION OF DUTIES.....	1383
500. Identity of department as a test, generally.....	1383
501. Consociation of duties, as a test of common employment	1383
501a. Same subject continued.....	1390
502. Relation between the theories of nonassignable duties and consociation of duties.....	1395
503. Difference or identity of department not necessarily conclusive under the consociation doctrine.....	1396
504. Consociation primarily a question of fact for the jury.....	1400
505. General discussion of the doctrine of consociation.....	1401
506. Illustrative cases.....	1405

CHAPTER XXVIII.

VICE PRINCIPALSHIP AS REFERRED TO THE TEST OF SUPERIORITY OF RANK.

A. INTRODUCTORY.....	1417
507. General statement.....	1417
508. Representative character of servant depends on the actual functions discharged by him.....	1418
509. Temporary vice principals.....	1420
510. Sufficiency of a complaint based upon the vice principalship of the negligent servant.....	1422
511. Functions of court and jury in determining whether the negligent employee was a vice principal.....	1423
512. Burden of proof.....	1425
513. Scope of following subtitles.....	1425