

- Iowa, fugitive slaves in, 126;
John Brown in, 217-18, 220, 222-24
- Jackson, Andrew, and abolition mail, 70-77, 78; selects Douglas to succeed him, 100
- Jamaica, slaves freed in, 25
- Japan, relations established with,
98
- Jones, Sheriff, in Kansas, 156, 158-59, 160
- Kagi, J. H., follower of John Brown, 222, 223, 227
- Kansas, and slavery, 142-43,
150-64, 182-90; emigration to,
151; Reeder as Governor,
152-54; elections in, 152; pro-
slavery legislatures, 152-53,
163; Shannon as Governor,
154, 156, 162, 164; pro-slavery
code, 154-55; Topeka Convention, 155; Topeka Constitution, 155, 173-74; Waka-rusa War, 156-57, 209; Buford expedition, 157, 159, 160;
"Beecher's Bibles," 158; attack on Lawrence, 158-60; Sumner's speeches, 160, 173-74, 175-76, 178-79, 181; attack
on Sumner, 160, 176-77; John Brown at Pottawatomie, 161,
210-11; state of war in, 161-
162, 212-13; change in government, 162; Geary as Governor, 162, 163-64, 182-83, 214;
Pierce upholds pro-slavery
party, 163-64; Lecompton Convention, 182-86; Walker
as Governor, 183-84, 186; Buchanan's attitude toward,
183, 184, 185, 186, 187, 197-98;
Lecompton Constitution, 185-188, 199; slaves in, 189-90;
see also Brown, John; Lawrence
- Kansas-Nebraska bill, 149-50, 197
- Kendall, Amos, Postmaster-
General, 75-76
- Kentucky, admitted as State (1792), 14; slave territory, 15;
pro-slavery reaction in, 35, 36
- Kossuth, Louis, 98
- Lane Theological Seminary, Asa
Mahan professor in, 51; abolition movement, 74-75
- Lawrence (Kan.), Underground
Railroad at, 126; founded,
151; Wakarusa War, 156-
157, 209; attack on, 158-60
- Lecompton Constitution for Kansas, 185-88, 199
- Lecompton Convention, 182-86
- Lee, Colonel R. E., at Harper's Ferry, 228-30
- Liberator*, 18, 54, 55, 56, 58-59, 70
- Liberty party organized, 39, 88;
Birney as candidate, 39, 88,
89; principles of Garrison, 57;
platform (1844), 95-96, 127;
becomes Free-soil party, 97
- Lincoln, Abraham, Lincoln-
Douglas debates, 200-02;
leader of Republican party, 202
- Louisiana admitted as State (1812), 14
- Louisiana Purchase, 87
- L'Ouverture, Toussaint, 25
- Lovejoy, Elijah, 69, 70
- Lundy, Benjamin, a New Jersey
Quaker, 27; early life, 28-29;
publishes Genius of Universal Emancipation, 30, 31-32; anti-slavery work, 30-33, 54, 69;
plans for colonization, 30-31;
meets Garrison, 31; founds
National Inquirer, 32; death (1839), 32; compared with Birney, 39-40; attitude toward expansion, 62
- McCaleb, W. F., Texas and the Mexican War, cited, 86 (note)