

X. OCTOBER hath XXXI Days. 1794.

The verdant leaves that play'd on High, And wanton'd on the western breeze, Now trod in dust neglected lie, As Boreas strips the bending trees. The fields that wav'd with golden grain, As ruffet heaths are wild and bare;	Not moist with dew, bu drench'd in rain, Nor health, nor pleasur warders there. No more while thro' the mid night shade, Beneath the moon's pale orb I stray, Soft pleasing wees my heart in vade, As Progne pours the melting lay
