

THE ABOVE CUT SHOWS THE

J. W. HARRIS EXCAVATOR

being tested and prepared for shipment for the Canadian White Company for their big sewerage contract at Edmonton, Alta.

The Machine takes the place of from Fifty to One Hundred Men, according to the depth and character of excavation, simplifying the work of timekeeping and eliminating the wrangling, discord and waste of time incident to a large working force.

For further particulars apply to

THE J. W. HARRIS CO., LIMITED
MONTREAL