

THE EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS

On Monday evening, July 2nd, the Twelfth Eucharistic Congress of the Diocese of London opened at Mount St. Joseph, London, Ont. Rev. E. Goetz preached the opening sermon in the convent chapel to the orphans and in the parish Churches of the city. Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was given.

Fine weather on the morning of the 3rd permitted the holding of the ceremonies in the open air, and the splendor and solemnity which marked the various functions deeply impressed the large crowd which gathered from the city and neighboring parishes.

Mount St. Joseph is singularly blessed by the beauty of its location and surroundings and seldom does nature provide so ideal a sanctuary in which to worship Our Lord in the Eucharist.

An altar was erected for the occasion on the large oval immediately in front of the convent and at 10.15 Right Rev. Bishop Fallon proceeded to administer the Sacrament of Confirmation to a large class of children from Mount St. Joseph Orphanage. Pontifical Mass was sung immediately after by the Right Rev. Bishop, the following officers assisting: Assistant Priest, Rev. E. L. Tierney; Deacons of Honor, Rev. W. C. Kelly and Rev. W. T. Corcoran; Deacon of the Mass, Rev. J. Neville; Subdeacon of the Mass, Rev. G. Labelle; Masters of Ceremonies, Rev. A. E. O'Donnell and Rev. J. A. Cook. Rev. E. G. Doe preached a most inspiring sermon on the Blessed Eucharist. A choir of one hundred voices sang the IXth Gregorian Mass.

Following the celebration of Mass the Blessed Eucharist was carried in solemn procession through the grounds, Rev. J. C. Kelly acting as Cross-Bearer followed by the children, Sisters and clergy. The Right Rev. Bishop carried the Sacred Host under a canopy and gave Benediction from an altar erected along the way. Rev. L. M. Forristal led in prayer. The procession proceeded to the chapel where the Blessed Sacrament remained exposed all day.

In a brief remark the Bishop thanked God for the blessing of one more Eucharistic Congress within the Diocese welcomed the priests and faithful who were present in such large numbers to honor Jesus in the Eucharist and expressed his deep gratitude to Rev. Father Valentin, Diocesan Director of the Eucharistic League, and the Sisters of St. Joseph who had worked so hard and successfully in the interests of the Congress.

At 3.30 p. m. Rev. J. F. Stanley gave a conference to the Sisters while the priests met in conference at the same hour with the Right Rev. D. O'Connor, V. G., presiding. Three excellent papers were read: "Holy Communion outside of Mass and Visitation of the parish by the Pastor," by Rev. D. L. Brisson.

Second Paper: "The Holy Eucharist and Convert-Making," by Rev. C. F. Nagle. Third Paper: "The Tabernacle," by Rev. L. M. Forristal. Discussion was led by Very Rev. Dr. J. T. Foley, D. D., Rev. J. Barry, C. S. S. R., and Rev. J. F. Andrewjeski.

Rev. P. L. Heurx addressed the children of the city during a visit to the Blessed Sacrament at 4.30 p. m. The closing exercises of the Congress took place at 7.30 p. m. in the chapel. During the Holy Hour Rev. A. P. Mahoney delivered an excellent sermon on the Blessed Sacrament. Solemn Benediction was given by Right Rev. D. O'Connor, V. G., Rev. T. P. Hussey acting as Deacon and Rev. J. R. Quigley as Subdeacon. The Bishop presided, assisted by Very Rev. Dr. Foley and Very Rev. Dean Hanlon. St. Peter's Choral Choir, directed by Brother Stephen, provided special music. The Congress closed with the singing of the Te Deum.

Close to one hundred priests were present at the different exercises throughout the day, and two hundred Sisters including representatives of the Dominican, Ursuline, Holy Name and Precious Blood nuns.

The Twelfth Eucharistic Congress was indeed remarkable and gave evidence of the enthusiastic interest which centres around this annual diocesan event.

DISCOVERY WEEK CELEBRATION

Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, will celebrate Discovery Week from Aug. 4th to 8th, when it will commemorate the 300th anniversary of the arrival of Etienne Brule, one of the most adventurous of the early coureurs de bois, and his companion, Grenolle, who in 1622 discovered the St. Mary's Rapids and Lake Superior. An elaborate programme is being prepared, one of the features of which will be the unveiling of a memorial to Brule and Grenolle by Sir Arthur Currie.

On a stage set out in the River, will be produced the Indian play "Hiawatha," based on Longfellow's poem, the scenes of which were all laid around the Sault, and in which the actors will be Ojibwas from the Reserve at Garden River, alongside the Sault, descendants of the tribe which welcomed Brule 300 years ago.

The play follows closely the lines of Longfellow's poem, and traces the life of the traditional Indian leader from childhood up.

A "Night Attack," representative of actual front line conditions, will be staged. Several hundred men who actually saw service at the front will take part, and it will undoubtedly be the most spectacular thing of its kind ever undertaken in Canada. The Government is lending its assistance in providing equipment and 10,000 rounds of blank ammunition will be issued to the troops taking part. The spectacle will show a working party operating in No Man's Land before the front line trenches after night, with a covering party to aid them. The general artillery engagement which will follow with the bursting of shells and the use of flares and lights will be a memorable sight. There will be manoeuvres showing an attack in open order.

The soldiers will be quartered in tents and accommodation for 3,000 men has been provided. A system of trenches have been built, from plans of a famous trench in France.

THE HUMAM HARP

There is a harp for each human breast. The strings of which are never at rest; Where music forever breathes and lingers, Awakened by thousands of viewless fingers, That play, like the hum of fairy wings, Their notes on its thousand quivering strings.

This Heaven-born harp is a priceless boon, In its mortal frame, with its strings in tune, But, whether the tones of this living harp are gentle and tender, flat or sharp, When louder rung, depends always on the ear that hears, and the hand that plays.

How touchingly tender is its moan, As it gives to sorrow its monotone; When touched by the palsied hand of fear, It vibrates quick on the startled ear; And its strong-wrought frame in frenzy leaps, While passion its diapason sweeps. But happier spirits are hovering near, And the music they play we love to hear; And they throng each harp with the grave and gay, And many a note I've heard them play— So often, too, are they playing the same.

That we know their touch and call them by name. There is love, who comes on his fluttering wing, And how it thrills when he touches the string; Fame thinks he has heard all over the land, As he strikes the chords with a master hand; But to Faith and Hope is the mission given To touch the notes that are heard in heaven. They linger still when the rest have gone, And left the frail harp broken and lone; And when death plays the last sad strain, And breaks the chords he shall ne'er touch again, They bear it away, with joyous wing, And string it anew where the Angels sing.

SCORNS THREAT

Washington, D. C., July 3.—Threats of violence on the part of the Ku Klux Klan were answered in characteristic soldier fashion by Corporal James Tanner, for twenty years register of wills for the District of Columbia, when he received a letter that spoke of Klan vengeance unless he removed from an office a recent appointee who is a Catholic and a Knight of Columbus.

The appointee in question is John Shiel, who was made second deputy register to fill a vacancy. Upon announcement of the appointment, Corporal Tanner, who is a legless veteran of the Union forces and former Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, received the following missive:

"We understand you have appointed as second deputy, a Catholic and Irishman by name John Shiel—unless you dispense with his services at once we will be forced to apply the methods of the Fiery Cross to you so beware, beware."

Grand Kleagle, K. K. K. In his reply Corporal Tanner minced no words about the Ku Klux Klan. He wrote as follows:

"To the Ku Klux Klan of the District of Columbia, 'Collectively or individually.

'Sirs: I received at my breakfast table this morning your undated, unsigned, cowardly, despicable communication threatening me with your vengeance because of the announcement of my appointment of Mr. John A. Shiel, a full-blooded native-born American citizen, specifying that he is the object of your hatred because he is a Knight of Columbus and a Catholic.

"The first result on receiving this absolutely cowardly, contemptible expression of your bigotry is the causing in my mind of a scorn which I have not the power to express in its full measure.

"No one of your organization dares to come into my office or my home and express to my face the sentiments you sent me. Mr. Shiel will assume his duties as my second deputy on the morning of Monday next.

Leaders of the District of Columbia Ku Klux Klan disclaim any knowledge of the letter received by Corporal Tanner.
