

"If it's the book makes him so different from the rest, it must be a book worth looking into," she said to herself.

"Keep it up, Jack," she said, as she wished him good-bye; "and I'm going to try it myself. If it's good for boys, it must be good for old folks too."

Jack had never thought of being an example; but he surely must have felt glad and thankful in having led anyone to read the pages which point the way to eternal life.

THE HIGHEST PRAISE.—I used a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters for my Dyspepsia and it proved a perfect cure, and I was blessed the day I got it. I would not be without it now for a good lot. It is worth its weight in gold. Mrs. W. J. Smith, Haley Station, Ont.

A BRAVE BOY.

A boy nine years old was bathing one day when, by some mischance, he got into deep water and began to sink. His elder brother saw him and ran to save him, but, lacking strength or skill, he also sank to the bottom of the river. As the two drowning brothers rose to the surface for the last time they saw a brother, the youngest of the family, running down the bank for the purpose of trying to save them. Then it was that the dying nine year-old boy acted the part of a hero. Struggling as he was with death, he gathered all his strength, and cried to his brother on shore "Don't come in or father will lose all his boys at once!" Noble little fellow! Though dying, he forgot himself and thought only of his father's grief. He was a genuine hero. His brother obeyed his dying command, and was spared to comfort his father, when his two dead sons were taken from the river clasped in each other's arms. Boys, you are not called to be heroes in this way, but you are called to consider the feelings of your parents, and to study how to avoid giving them pain. Blessed are those children whose words and deeds make sweet music in their parents' souls.

A BIG SUCCESS.—For summer complaints and diarrhoea I can truly recommend Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, as I have used it in my family with great success and would not be without it. John R. Haynes, Grimsby, Ont. Never travel without it.
