

ESTABLISHED 1891.
For nearly a quarter of a century I have practised Dentistry in Newfoundland, and to-day there are many thousands perfectly satisfied with my services.
Our Artificial Teeth are now, as at first, the very best obtainable, but the fee has been reduced to $12.00.
We repair broken plates and make them just as strong as ever at a charge that will surprise you.
If you want a new set, or the old ones repaired, consult

The Borden Govt. To Grant Inquiry Order

At Least Twenty Conservative M.P.'s to Withdraw Support If the Shell Charges Are Not Probed.

Hon. Andrew Broder Advises Premier Borden to Grant Liberal Demand for an Investigation.

OTTAWA, March 30.—Of the many crises in the precarious history of the Borden government ever since its advent to power through the alliance with the Nationalists in 1911, there have been none more serious than the present one. It is admitted frankly in the government, and with the government its followers in the house, are in an almost hopeless predicament. The charges preferred against the Shell Committee culminating in Mr. Kyle's sensational indictment threaten to bring down the whole house of cards.

After committing itself to no investigation, after hitching up through the minister of militia with the Shell Committee and with Colonel J. Wesley Allison, the government now finds that at least a score of Conservative members in the house will not stand for the burking of any inquiry, and are demanding that there be a real and resolute leadership and a genuine cleaning up. It looks as though the revolt in the government camp which has grown steadily to-day as the details of Mr. Kyle's charges have been studied, Hansard, cannot be quelled.

It is very doubtful if a sufficient number of the members can be whipped into line again to insure the turning down of Sir Wilfred's resolution for an investigation in case the government should refuse to veto such corruption and which they now face and should still insist on a party vote against that resolution.

"On the other hand, it is realized that if an investigation is granted it will be a damning confession of weakness in view of the unequivocal stand hitherto taken by the government against an investigation, while at the same time the washing of the dirty linen in public would be almost certain to insure a sweeping defeat whenever the electors had again a chance to render verdict at the polls.

Private members among the Conservative party frankly admit that this about represents the situation. There is open fault-finding with the leadership which has allowed the party to get into such a mess. There are again heard the demands or former years for a general cabinet shake-up and a new and strong leadership, and there are many, who, while recognizing that Major-General Sir Sam Hughes is perhaps the one strong card the government would have to play in the general election declare that he is too irrevocably committed to Allison to be allowed to remain longer in the cabinet.

His responsibility for the million dollar rake-off of Allison and his friends, Yookum and Lignati, must be shared by the whole government and by the party so long as he remains a member of the Cabinet. There is vigorous criticism of the Minister of Militia, for having run the whole show with regard to the Shell Committee without having taken his colleagues into his confidence, for having skipped off to London just before the storm broke, and for leaving the government caught by surprise and without a defence of any kind against the latest and most sensational of all charges of munitions profiteering.

Frank Demand in Conservative Press. This feeling is frankly expressed in the Conservative press. "The Ottawa Citizen," for instance, says:—"Many Conservative members are plainly dissatisfied with the situation. They take the view that they hold no brief for Colonel Wesley Allison and that because he is a friend of General Hughes, the party as a whole is not bound to rush to his defence or to that of the minister, and refuse investigation. Sir Sam Hughes enjoys no striking popularity with the Conservative party, and a big group of members are demanding that he be brought back to defend himself."

The Ottawa Journal, through its parliamentary correspondent, and with undoubtedly the imprimatur of its editor, P. D. Ross, one of Premier Borden's closest friends, says:—"Amongst the ranks of Conservative M.P.'s mentioned prominently as ad-
