

That Son-in-Law of Pa's—By Wellington

What You Don't Read
On The Score Boards

Mr. Henri Gero, otherwise known as one of Brantford's best bets, managed to secure his fourth win in the Canadian League, 1914 season yesterday by a 7-4 margin. Although touched up for 11 hits, Gero apparently had much the best of the argument against Wilkinson, who, by the way, won seven straight for St. Thomas last fall without a break. The Red Sox garnered in 10 hits and showed the Saints how to play a good game of ball in the field.

To-day, Mr. Asher will probably make his debut. He will be opposed by Hughey, who was the only St. Thomas twirler to take a game from Brantford. Asher is supposed to be a rattling good pitcher. In fact he bears it out both by reputation and record, and the players who know him have all kinds of confidence that he will deliver.

The Red Sox have won four and lost three on the road so far. They have two games to play. How different is the record from that of former years.

After two more games with the Saints, the Red Sox meet Hamilton for three contests during the remainder of the week. We weep for Hamilton to-day, having lost two straight games to Erie. Directors, no doubt will again assemble and ponder over the situation.

Thursday's game behind the dyke with Hamilton will start at 4 p.m. This is an experiment which will be watched with interest at the box office. If it drives a number of people away who want to be back up town by 6 o'clock, the old hour of 3:30 may again be adopted.

When President Nelson bought cigars for the members of the press box at Hamilton, he established a worthy precedent. On Saturday last President Garthwaite of Hamilton followed suit. It was our pleasure to be there and to be in, although it is said that Paddy Jones of the Herald reached over and took more than his share out of the box.

Ottawa has twice humbled the London Cocks. Meanwhile Brantford is creeping. London plays here next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday when we will have a good look at Reising's world beaters.

The Petes and Saints are having a grand fight for the cellar position.

Toronto and Erie both passed Hamilton yesterday.

When Chase got hammered so badly in Erie, it was his slow ball that was murdered. His fast one stood him in good stead.

In Erie they bawled Eddie Taylor out as another Walter Johnson but Taylor bawled Erie out by walking off with another easy game to his credit.

It is a cinch, Knotty Lee will have a better team in Toronto than Doc Yates will in Hamilton. Send for Knotty.

An Ottawa paper remarks that since Deneau, while pitching, was hammered to a 15-0 fizzle, it should be said that he is a fair to medium first baseman.

After London and Ottawa play a few games on the road they will not appear such crackjack aggregations as home dope and home press notices lead one to believe.

If Midge Craven accommodates the Red Sox with two more games this week it would not be surprising if we were in first place Saturday night next.

Fans wondered why Deneau expressed the intention to release Gallagher immediately after winning a game at Hamilton. Well, when Gallagher was batted out of the box in four innings at Niagara Falls Sunday by a bunch of semi-pros, there was reason enough why he should walk. And Gallagher beat Hamilton.

Wonderful baseball town Erie must be. Decoration Day 300 paid to see ball in the morning and 1200 in the afternoon. If the Red Sox played at Oshkosh, down among Chief Nelson's friends, we could show better than that.

It seems passing strange but there is a lingering suspicion among the fans that Brantford will win a few ball games ere the season closes.

OTTAWA BEAT
LONDON AGAIN

League Race is Tightened Up as Result of Monday's Games.

OTTAWA, June 2.—With a score 4 to 1 against them, the Ottawas looked like a beaten team when they went to bat in the seventh inning in yesterday's game against the London team. London had knocked Kane out of the box, and Ottawa had not been able to rap out a solitary safety off Beebe. The crowd roared for a rally, however, and it came. Powers doubled, Dolan singled, and Fried drew his third pass of the day, filling the bases. Shocker breezed out, but Bullock's single scored Powers, and Mills' infield allowed Doan to register. Shaughnessy then doubled, scoring Fried and Nill, and putting his side ahead. Rogers duplicated his manager's liner, making it 6 to 4, and after Lage's two-base hit, which advanced him to third, Rogers stole home. He hugged the bag until the ball had left Linneborn's hands, Catcher Snyder having thrown it there to catch Lage, but Rogers darted for the plate with Linneborn's arm, and as the latter had thrown it to Pitcher Beebe, Lefty beat it home by several feet on one of the cleverest plays of the season. Five hits, a pass and an error had one all the damage, but Rogers' steal was the feature and the crowd went wild.

Shocker, who replaced Kane in the sixth, allowed only one hit. Reising took out Beebe in the seventh and pitched a good game. The match abounded in exciting plays, Rogers and Reising distinguishing themselves with brilliant catches. Two thousand people attended, and the Ottawa rally in the seventh sent the mall into hysterics. The victory places Ottawas within one game of London in the Canadian League race.

DOLAN WEAKENS AND ERIE WINS IN ELEVENTH.
ERIE, June 2.—After twirling one of the most remarkable games ever pitched in this city, Dolan weakened in the 11th inning yesterday, and Hamilton lost 4 to 3. Once the locals had the bases full with none out, but Dolan tightened and either forced the batters to fan or hit flies to the outfield. On three occasions he tightened and prevented the Yanks from scoring when Hamilton's chances to stem the tide seemed doomed. The score: Erie, 10; Hamilton, 100 100 00-3 4 14 1. Moore and McNeill; Dolan and Haefner. Umpire—Walsh.

GALM HOLDS PETES, WHILE BEAVERS WIN.
TORONTO, June 2.—After booting the ball all over the lot like a lot of corner lot artists and presenting the lowly Petes with three in the first inning, the Beavers came from behind and scored a 3 to 4 victory behind the masterful pitching of Galm, a new heater. Galm held the Petes hitless for five rounds and only allowed them five safeties throughout the afternoon. The Beavers showed across their runs with timely batting. The attendance was very poor.

CIRCUS SPECTACLE HAS GIGANTIC CAST

"Solomon and the Queen of Sheba" is this season's feature with Ringling Brothers circus. A gigantic wordless play enacted upon a stage bigger than that of a hundred ordinary theatres, it has been pronounced the most magnificent spectacle ever presented in America. It requires a cast of 1250 characters, a ballet of 300 dancing girls, and a caravan of camels. It depicts the glory of Solomon and the beauty of Balkis in a succession of scenes that picture the pomp and splendor of ancient Israel with strict regard for historical accuracy.

This mammoth pantomime opens the regular circus program in the main tent and is part of the performance. It will be seen when Ringling Brothers' World's Greatest Shows come here, Friday, June 12. Five trains are required to transport the wonders of Ringlingville, and one entire section is loaded with special scenery, costumes, accessories and electrical effects used in the Solomon and the Queen of Sheba production. There is a chorus of a thousand voices and 90 musicians augmented by a cathedral organ. The grand procession in which Solomon goes to the gates of Jerusalem to greet Sheba's queen is a pageant of grandeur enlisting the entire cast of characters, almost 700 horses, elephants and correctly captioned desert camels. The costumes of the monarch's train and that of the visiting princess are of a richness in keeping with the era portrayed. The thrones, vehicles, musical instruments, symbolical utensils, armor and trappings were designed after the exact style of those used and worn 30 centuries ago.

How They Love 'Em.
St. Thomas Journal: We are glad to see Doctor Reising getting along so well in London and happy to think that he has his club on top since the Saints are not occupying it but we should not think what will happen to them when they slip out. Oh, yes, Pauline, they will slip before long.

Why Mrs. Mark Found Quick Relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

New Brunswick Lady Who Suffered For Six Years Tells How She Found a Speedy Cure. Miscon Harbor, Gloucester Co., N. J., June 1.—(Special).—"For some five or six years I was troubled with backache. I tried many tonics, but kept growing steadily worse, until I decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. They gave me almost immediate relief."

This is the statement of Mrs. A. Mark, well known and highly respected here. Asked to give more particulars in regard to her case, Mrs. Mark said: "My trouble started with a cold, and gradually grew worse. I had stiffness in my joints and cramps in my muscles and suffered from neuralgia. I had heart fluttering and headaches, my sleep was broken and unrefreshing and I was always tired and nervous. I had dark circles under my eyes. I was irritable and often dizzy and had a bitter taste in my mouth in the mornings. I also had attacks of rheumatism."

"It just took three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills to fix me up."

Every symptom Mrs. Mark mentions spells kidney disease. That's why she found such quick relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Dufferin Rifles Held Last
Parade of the Season
Last Night.

The closing drill of the season was held last night in the armouries, when the 38th. paraded 378 strong.

"A" Company led in numbers with parade roll of 37; E. Company came next with 31 and "G" a lusty growing child" beside its elders, shot up to 30. The bands were in strength with 32 in the brass and Sergt. Mellor's Buglers totalling 36.

Being their last parade previous to going to camp next week, the night was devoted to out door training. The battalion was exercised throughout various parts of the city in outpost duties, the signallers held a practice on the terrace; and the stretcher bearers on the green.

Under Bandmaster Johnson, the brass band played to quite an audience and gave an unexpected treat to the enthusiasts who congregated to admire and criticize our local soldiers.

Sergt. Mellor marched the buglers round the Terrace and gave "Murphy the drumstick juggler" a workout which he seemed to enjoy.

Their selections were heartily enjoyed by the juveniles to whom the technique and finesse of the brass instruments as yet does not appeal.

Col. Howard and staff, moved throughout the parade, commencing criticizing and advising as the occasion warranted.

After the corps re-assembled, they drew up in company column in the hall and were addressed on the arrangements for Niagara camp by Lt. Col. Howard, who hopes for a record mobilization.

The bugle band goes to camp this year and Pte. Murphy is promoted to Sergt. in order that the disciplinary experiences of the Dublin Fusiliers may be visited upon their young minds and elsewhere, if the impression is to be lasting.

There's a new bass drum coming from London, England (by special order) the one in use at the present time from the U. S. A. and it gives satisfaction when the "M. Leaf" is played.

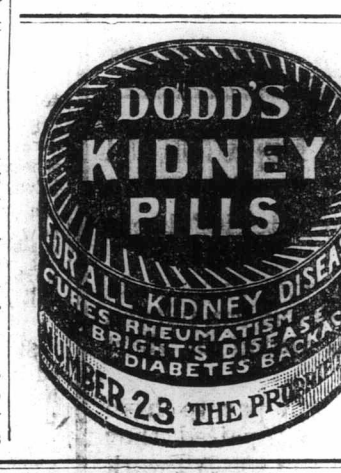

The bugle band is not to be accompanied by parents or guardians and all such soothing things as feed bottles and comforters are to be omitted from their kits—(not in orders.) On Saturday morning the advance party will parade at the armouries at 7:30 and the main body on Monday morning at 8 o'clock, en route for five days "rooty grub" and "squeaky pushing."

"F" company got two recruits—115 hour conversions and welcome nevertheless. Old soldiers take notice, there's two new guys to initiate into the arts and crafts—they'll be very much required when fatigue parties are made up.

Extract from Kipling:—
For we licks 'em, an' we kicks 'em,
An' we knocks 'em into shape,
Till one morning they awake in their full and proper kit—
Jus' so.

Gero, Asher, Taylor and Chase look like a pretty fair bunch of pitchers.

Chase, Taylor, Roth and LaCroix declare that Ed. Asher will prove one of the best moundmen in the Canadian League before the season is over.
