THE MUSICAL.

Miss Mariam Green has every reason to congratulate herself on the musical which she held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Wiltse, Church street, on Friday evening last. Besides her large music class, occupying the chairs before the piano, were many of her friends and acquaintances from Athens and the surrounding country. That the performance was ably conducted, under the management of Miss Green, was evident by the fact that it was not only of a very high order, but those taking part in the programme responded with alacrity; consequently the waits were not such as to try the patience of those present.

The program opened with a solo, "Honey Dear," by Mr. E. Clow, which was loudly applauded. This was followed by instrumentals, "Gay Little Dandelion," by Miss May Sheffield, and "Wild Rose," by Miss Gibson. Mr. Marshall then rendered a solo in a manner which well merited the hearty applause to which he responded with an encore. "Murmuring Zephyrs," by Miss Eliza Percival; "Songs Without Words," by Miss Gertrude Gallagher, and "Valse," by Miss Carrie Leggett, were pleasing numbers. Another song "In the Heart of the Deep," by Mr. Clow, was well received. The Misses Leggett and Green then played a duet. Miss Gallagher again sang very sweetly a solo, "Valse Chromatique (Godard)," followed by "Simple Confession," (Thorne), which was nicely rendered by Miss Carrie Leggett. The program ended with a solo, "The Monk," by Mr. Marshall.

By special request Miss Cora Wiltse sang a song which received generous and well earned applause.

LAWN SOCIAL.

The lawn social given on Thursday evening last on Doctor Harte's lawn under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of Christ church, Athens, was a success in more ways than one. The weather was everything but promising and at times threatened to be nasty, but despite its inclemency a large crowd gathered to partake of the delicious viands and have a general good time. The lawn was prettily illuminated with numberless Chinese lanterns and lamps while a score or more of waiters were kept busy the greater part of the evening serving out ice cream and cake to the gay throng which constantly came and went. A booth where one could purchase a variety of home-made candy was also on the grounds and was liberally patronized. An orchestra composed of Miss B. Pierce, piano; Messrs. S. Manharat, J. R. Tye and Alex. Compo, violin; J. C. Coby, piccolo; and R. DeWolfe and H. Berney, cornet, heightened the enjoyment of the evening by a liberal dispensation of music which was much appreciated. A gramophone was also on the grounds and received its share of attention. After all had partaken of the cream and cake, the crowd gathered about the tent in the centre of the lawn where the following program was rendered: Selection by orchestra; quartette, Messrs. Anderson, Connerty, Clow and Slack; piano duet, Misses Bernoy and Arnold; solo, Miss B. Pierce; solo, Miss Ethel Slack; piano duet, Misses Leggett and Ross; quartette, Messrs. Anderson, Connerty, Clow and Slack; selection by orchestra, and "God Save The King" by the audience after which the crowd dispersed. The accompanists of the evening were Mrs. Donovan, Mrs. Geo. E. Judson and Miss Lester.

BASEBALL.

An aggregation of apprentice boys defeated the public school team at baseball on Friday evening last by a score of 28 to 7.

The hitherto invincible (?) High School team went down and out before the village team on Wednesday evening last. Three innings were played, the H. S. having the best of the argument until the last inning, when the village made 8 runs, winning the game. Chas. Arnold officiated as umpire, with Geo. Holmes watching the bases. Following is the score by innings:

Village 1 1 8 - 10

High School 5 1 2 - 8

King's Evil

That is Scrofula. No disease is older. No disease is really responsible for a larger mortality. Consumption is commonly its outgrowth. There is no excuse for neglecting it. It makes its presence known by so many signs, such as glandular tumors, cutaneous eruptions, inflamed eyelids, sore ears, rickets, catarrh, wasting and general debility. Children of J. W. McGinn, Woodstock, Ont., had scrofula sores so bad they could not attend school for three months. When different kinds of medicines had been used to no purpose whatever, these sufferers were cured, according to Mr. McGinn's voluntary testimony, by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Sarsaparilla which has effected the most wonderful radical and permanent cures of scrofula in old and young.
