W. A. Muir, of Lima, O., says: "I was one of the countless victims of early vice at 15 years of age. The drains on my system were weakening my brain as well as my sexual and nervous system. For ten years I tried scores of doctors, electric belts and patent medicines. Some helped me, none cured. I was giving up in despair, in fact, contemplating suicide when a friend advised me as a last resort to give the New Method Treatment of Drs. K. & K. a fair trial. Without confidence I consented and in three months I was a cured man. I was cured seven years ago—am married and happy. I heartily recommend Drs. K. & K. to my afflicted fellow men."

We treat and cure Varicose, Emissions, Nervous Debility, Seminal Weakness, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis, Unnatural Discharges, Self Abuse, Kidney and Bladder Diseases, and all diseases of Men and Women.

NO NAMES USED WITHOUT WRITTEN CONSENT. PRIVATE. No medicine sent C. O. D. No names on boxes or envelopes. Everything confidential. Question list and cost of treatment, FREE.

DELTA.

The Delta junior hockey team went to Lyndhurst for the first game. The Lyndhurst club has five men for their team who were not exactly juniors and the result was a defeat for the Delta team by 2 to 1. For the second game Lyndhurst team came to Delta, bringing not the same players as before. Delta defeated Lyndhurst 3 to 2. Last Saturday, Delta team went to Lyndhurst for the third game and each scored one goal. Wayne Jackson is the captain of the Delta junior hockey team.

Our school is prospering with a good attendance. Active interest is displayed by the pupils, under the supervision of Mr. R. Llan-a, teacher.

The session of the Epworth League of the Methodist church was the scene of festive gaiety on the evening of the 16th inst., when about forty boys and girls were very pleasantly entertained. The geography contest was a hard one. Miss Birdie Copeland won the contest, the prize being the Christian Era.

The anniversary services were held in the Methodist church on the 25th inst. Rev. A. H. Visser, of Brockville, preached on the subject, "Christ the Sanctification," at 2 o'clock afternoon service, and on "The Contradiction of man" at the evening service. His sermons were well appreciated by all who attended the services. Social offerings were given. Mr. Ellsworth Plamstead, the Montreal soloist, sang in a pleasing manner.

Rev. G. H. Williams was announced to preach the anniversary sermon at the church at Fairfield last Sunday.

The annual meeting of South Leeds Agricultural society was held in the town hall on the 21st inst. to wind up last year's business and elect officers. It was thought that all the old directors would be selected for this year's exhibition.

H. F. Cameron, of Carleton Place, is in town for the purpose of buying soft wood for use in his lime kiln.

The farmers are delivering wood from Philipville, Chantry and Daytown.

The surprise party given at the residence of Mr. Ormond Chant, Chantry, on 21st inst., was well attended by Delta people. All enjoyed themselves immensely and returned home in the wee small hours.

Messrs. T. H. Berney and Charles Arnold and Misses Berdie Moore, of Smith's Falls, and Clara Stevens, of Athens, had a pleasure drive to Delta on Sunday last.

NIXON-MIDDLETON

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, 21st January, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. Middleton, Sweet's Corners, when their eldest daughter, Minnie, was married to Albert J. Nixon, one of Delta's most popular and prosperous young men.

At six o'clock, amid the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Mabel Moore, the bride entered and took her place under the beautiful arch where the groom awaited her. The magic words which made them man and wife were spoken by Rev. W. Service, Seeley's Bay.

The bride looked lovely in a suit of pearl gray ladies' cloth, trimmed with white silk and applique. The bridesmaid, Miss Mary Nixon, was charmingly attired in a suit of blue camel-hair cloth, with silk waist to match, and white applique trimmings. The groom was supported by Jesse Landon, of Lyndhurst. After congratulations, there was a general move towards the dining room where the guests sat down to a sumptuous dinner.

The happy couple will reside in Delta after spending their honeymoon with friends in Clayton, N.Y., and other places. The many valuable and costly presents show the high esteem in which the young couple were held. The bride will be greatly missed in the Lyndhurst Methodist church choir, and in the Sunday school where she took an active part as organist.

WHAT TO LEARN

Learn to laugh. A good laugh is better than medicine.

Learn to attend strictly to your own business—a very important point.

Learn to tell a story. A well-told story is as welcome as a sunbeam in a sick-room.

Learn the art of saying kind and encouraging things, especially to the young.

Learn to avoid all ill-natured remarks and everything calculated to create friction.

Learn to keep your troubles to yourself. The world is too busy to care for your ills and sorrows.

Learn to greet your friends with a smile. They carry too many flowers in their own hearts to be bothered with any of yours.—Christian Life.

ABERDEEN'S ANNUAL

There was a great gathering at McIntosh's Mills on Wednesday evening last, the occasion being the annual supper of the patrons of Aberdeen cheese factory. Among the notables present were Messrs. D. Deryn, A. T. Wilgress, Geo. P. Graham, M. L. A., Brockville, and Mr. A. E. Donovan, Athens, all of whom contributed interesting addresses to the excellent programme presented. Mr. J. J. Connolly presided over the meeting in his usual genial and inimitable manner. Vocal numbers were given by Miss Oelia Flood, Mr. B. Leeder, and Mr. Stanley Leeder, and instrumental music by Miss Nora and Mr. R. B. Leeder. Messrs. Phil. Leeder, Richard Marshall and Chas. Immanuel delivered short, practical, addresses. The supper was a great feast—an example of the skill and generosity of the people of that section.

Aberdeen factory made a noteworthy record in 1902. No fault was found with the 1,820 boxes turned out, and the patrons received an average of $2.36 per ton more for their milk than during the previous year.

THE LIQUOR ACT

On the strength of the immense vote polled for The Liquor Act at the referendum, a representative delegation of 200 temperance men and women waited upon Premier Ross a few days ago and requested that effect be given to said vote by the abrogation of the public bar, the treating system, and drinking in clubs, and the imposition of such other restriction on the liquor traffic as shall most effectively curtail its operation and remedy its evils. Mr. Ross received the delegation very graciously and in reply said: "My duty in connection with this question is to consult my supporters, and that I shall do at the earliest opportunity. The earliest opportunity will be when the House meets, when we shall see how far the members will support the Government in implementing that vote. That is the only position I can take to day. I hope we will secure such legislation as will be with the approval of the country. I would feel humiliated if you thought we would play fast and loose with this question, or any question." The reply of Mr. Ross is regarded with gratification by temperance people, who think that such restrictions will go a long way towards bringing about prohibition.

GEN. DELAREY'S SURPRISE

"The Man to Set Things Right in South Africa."

Boer Tells His Commando That Chamberlain is That Man—The Colonial Secretary and Party Trekking at Ten Miles an Hour—Pictoresque Spectacle—An Excellent Impression.

London, Jan. 26.—Colonial Secretary Chamberlain started Saturday on an interesting wagon trek from Johannesburg to Mafeking, accompanied by Mrs. Chamberlain, Sir Arthur Lawley, Major-General Baden-Powell and others. Relays of mules had been arranged to enable the party to travel at about ten miles an hour.

There was a picturesque scene outside Ventersdorp, thirty-one miles northwest of Potchefstroom. A commando of Boers met the party and escorted it into the town. A bouquet of flowers was presented to Mrs. Chamberlain. The Colonial Secretary was conducted to the house of the Landrost, and the commando of Boers drew up in a half circle outside. Soon after, Gen. Delarey arrived and was cordially received by Mr. Chamberlain, who introduced him to Mrs. Chamberlain.

After the presentation of an address of welcome, the Secretary made a speech to the commando, in which he congratulated the Boers in being the comrades of so great and gallant a man as Gen. Delarey. He said also: "I hope he is my friend, and I hope you are all my friends. We fought a good fight, and there is nothing to be ashamed of on either side."

On the conclusion of Mr. Chamberlain's speech, which was throughout in this vein, General Delarey unexpectedly stepped forward and addressed the Boers in Dutch, declaring his belief that the Colonial Secretary was "the man to set things right in South Africa."

These speeches made an excellent impression. On proceeding on their journey yesterday, General Delarey accompanied the party.

The law in reference to manslaughter was argued at length by Crown Attorney Wilkes, who acted for the Crown, and Louis F. Heyd, who defended the accused. After considering the circumstances under which the shooting occurred Judge Hardy acquitted the prisoner and discharged him. In doing so he referred to the pain which the tragedy had caused the brothers, and both of them, who were in court, wept bitterly.
