CHEER MR. BOYER.
Mr. Boyer was then called upon amid the cheers of the audience. "I say just as I said before," said he, "that I was called aside by Mr. Stephens. Did you not call me aside?" he asked Mr. Stephens, looking straight at him.
Mr. Stephens—No, sir!
Mr. Boyer—You deny that?
Mr. Stephens—I do!
Mr. Boyer—Would you swear it?
Mr. Stephens—I have!

TOOK TEN LONG MONTHS TO GET A CONTRADICTION.

Mr. Boyer—Gentlemen, Mr. Stephens did call me aside (cheers) and what he said to me was just this, "If you will advocate and help through this by-law there is $250 in it for you." He said, "what can the promoters do for the road if the Council is against it. They have got to have the aid of the Council." I did not feel like saddling the Township of Dover with a $75,000 debt for a road and a couple of spurs (cheers). This is all I have got to say and I want to remind you I said it all openly at nomination day last December in Dover, just a month after it occurred, and it has never been contradicted until to-night.

When Mr. Boyer concluded the air was rent with cheers and cries of "Hurrah for Boyer!"

ANALYZING THE "DEFENCE."

Ward Stanworth was the next speaker on the list and made one of the most telling addresses of the night. He said—

Gentlemen, you have a case of two men on one side and one man on the other side—two charging and the other denying it. It is a question with you which will you believe?

F. Tschirhart—What about the men from Toronto?

Mr. Stanworth—That is Mr. Tschirhart from Chatham. I am talking to the men of Dover. They are the men who are interested in this. Let him keep still for one moment if it's not asking too much.

No more was heard from Mr. Tschirhart.

Mr. Stanworth—That meeting in N. H. Stevens' office was called for the purpose of discussing the $75,000 bonus. There has not been one affidavit filed here to-night which will contradict me in this, and the promoters used every endeavor to have it submitted. There were two councillors in favor and two against. Without another councillor for, it could not be submitted, and the meeting broke up with two for and two against. I have no fear of contradiction in this. Now what would naturally follow? They must get the by-law submitted and they must induce one or both who are against, to turn over (Hear! Hear) Purser and Boyer have represented Dover for years. I ask you people of Dover, are they men who would make a false statement (No! No!) Some say that the offer was not made. Do you believe it (No! No!) Purser and Boyer did not come forward at the time and make their charges. Why? It is a delicate matter to get out and make these charges, but it was common talk in Dover. Mr. Boyer took it up on nomination day. They were told their friends. It was known in the city of Chatham. Stephens knew it was being discussed. His representatives told him. Why did he not take it up then? On nomination day in Dover Mr. Boyer made the statement. What do they expect a man to do? (Cheers)

A week ago last Saturday night a meeting was held and this matter was discussed. Stephens knew it would be discussed for he admitted it to a Planet representative at his own house, but he didn't come to that meeting. When asked by The Planet if he didn't know these charges were to be made, he replied O, yes, he heard about it (applause). That meeting passed off and Stephens, when asked what he had to say, replied, "I will have to consult my solicitor." He did give a statement later saying he had no financial interest in the concern. Yet Mr. Stephens petitioned for the charter and is the first named of the charter members of the company and a provisional director. Did you ever hear of a provisional director without stock?—Applause.

Mr. Stanworth then produced the charter of the company proving that what he said was true. Continuing he said—

"Every person wants the road but they don't want to pay for it and then hand it over to the promoters. What does it mean? Practically what the Liberal Government wants you to do with the G. T. P. Pay for it and then hand it over to a railway corporation—Applause. If you would have passed that bonus you would be taxed between $1.50 and $2.00 on all your land. Would any business man support that? I consider George Stephens' offer a bribe and I don't see how anyone can take it otherwise. (Hear! Hear!)

Mr. Stanworth was loudly applauded.

Miss Rose Hennessy, well known as a poetess and elocutionist, of Lexington, Ky., tells how she was cured of uterine inflammation and ovaritis by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For years I enjoyed the best of health and thought that I would always do so. I attended parties and receptions thinly clad, and would be suddenly chilled, but I did not think of the results. I caught a bad cold eighteen months ago while menstruating, and this caused inflammation of the womb and congested ovaries. I suffered excruciating pains and kept getting worse. My attention was called to your Vegetable Compound, and I made up my mind to be reformed, and I made up my mind to do for me. Within one month I felt much better, and at the close of the second I was entirely well.

"I have advised a number of my friends to use it, and all express themselves as well satisfied with the results as I was."—Miss Rose NORA HENNESSY, 410 S. Broadway, Lexington, Ky. —$2.00 per bottle. (If original of above letter for proof genuine cannot be produced.)

Liberal-Conservative candidate, was the next speaker and as he appeared before that vast crowd of people he was greeted with three hearty cheers, which were prolonged into many times three cheers.

"I would like to say to you that it is a pleasure for me to address my old neighbors and schoolmates. I will not talk politics although I would enjoy doing so. I will just repeat the statement I made here before. I believe you have perfect faith in Messrs. Purser and Boyer. (Yes, Yes) I have known them all my life and I believe in them (Applause).

"N. H. Stevens is a personal friend of mine but he has no state to make here to-night which I think I should have the credit for. It was in advocating an ice boat for the Thames, I suggested that myself and I think I should get a little credit for it. (Applause). I regret that Mr. Stevens has to all appearances, induced you a bribe of the ice boat. I am told there is a campaign of personalities being urged against me. I wish to say that Geo. Stephens nor any other man can attack me from a personal standpoint. I tell you things will be changed for the Kent farmers if men like Geo. Stephens are left at home at the next election. I appeal to every farmer of Dover for his vote in the coming election.

Mr. Clements was given more cheers as he resumed his seat.

AN ELOQUENT EXPOSITION.

A. B. Carscallen, of Wallaceburg, was the next speaker. Mr. Carscallen is an orator of exceptional ability and had a good address when talking to the gathering. Every word carried weight and all of his points are brought home with telling effect. Referring to the matter under discussion he said—

"You must settle this bribery question irrespective of politics. If the statements made by Purser and Boyer are true, I don't care how you are politically, you cannot afford to vote for Stephens. I don't charge Stephens with anything. Take the statute for it. Geo. Stephens and these other gentlemen are the company. If the statements made here are true and all of these gentlemen are directors of the company and have no financial interest in it, does it not look as if these gentlemen lent the use of their names to people we do not know in order to get bonuses from the farmers? People say if these gentlemen are directors surely it is a responsible concern thus they are humbugging the people of Dover. It is

TIME THIS CHARTER-MONGERING IS STOPPED.

Or is it the truth that they are directors of the company and don't expect to put a dollar in the concern. You are to build the road and hand it over to them? I tell you, men of Dover, it has a nasty look. It is indefensible morally. Those people say they didn't hear the bribe offered. Stephens is not insane. He would not offer a bribe before a thousand people. Of course, these men did not see what they could not possibly see. Take Stephens himself. His actions look worse than the mongering. Take his own story to-night of what he said to the Reeve. Did he ask Purser to consider the people of Dover? No. He said it was good for him personally. He told him to forget all about the people of Dover. He said "There is money in it for you." This bears just as nasty a look as the charter-mongering of which they admit now that they are guilty. It is time these corporations were taken in hand and shown that they cannot bamboozle the people.

"What have our friends done to-night? They have brought with them a man, M. K. Cowan, who made the threat this very afternoon that he would jump on the chests of those beggars.

"Vice—He's afraid of Lew Wigley! Mr. Carscallen—Mr. Cowan is the paid solicitor for the G. T. Pacific Railway Company.—Applause. When they run out of the Chatham, Wallaceburg and Lake Erie they get the Grand Trunk.

All of this free work on the part of Mr. Stephens was very philanthropic of him, indeed. What had he to do with the Dover bonus? His work was completed when he got the bill through parliament. I have seen witnesses in the box, and if I can tell anything from a man's demeanor, I would say that Messrs. Purser and Boyer are honest men. I heard these reports about Stephens' bribery proposals in Wallaceburg months ago. Why didn't I say something about it? It was done of my business, unless the man accused offers himself for public office and public confidence, and then, if I know he is not fit for the office, it is my duty to expose him. That is what your true friends, Purser and Boyer, did.—Applause.

They came here and reported it. The G. T. P. is the Chatham, Wallaceburg & Lake Erie over again. You start off by building 1,875 miles of railway which will be utterly useless and a waste of money, and then they send out their paid solicitor to shove it down your throats—Applause. You pay for the road and then hand it over to the Grand Trunk Pacific. You don't know who they are. They are just as mysterious as the Chatham, Wallaceburg & Lake Erie. Mr. Purser calls them a Punch and Judy affair. We have a natural waterway to carry our grain over.—Hear! Hear! You don't want a road the nearest point to which is 100 miles away from you. They are the most philanthropic lot of gentlemen that I have ever seen.—Applause.

Mr. Carscallen dealt with the discharge of the Auditor-General, John Lorne McDougall.

"Statistics are true you cannot afford to vote for Geo. Stephens.—No! No! In four years' time Mr. Clements will bring back your standard true and clean, and no one will be able to point a charge of bribery at him."

As Mr. Carscallen resumed his seat he was again greeted with great applause.

M. K. COWAN SPEAKS.

M. K. Cowan was the next speaker. Mr. Cowan was not at his best, although he seemed to be in the best of spirits.

"I find a charge of bribery made against a man with whom I sat in parliament for four years. This charge comes up three weeks before the election. I read what Purser said in The Chatham Planet, and his statement to-night is not the same and Boyer's statement does not agree with what Purser said.

He was interrupted here with cries of "You're a paid solicitor." "I would like to ask Mr. Purser," said Mr. Cowan, "Did he think Stephens was trying to bribe him when he said there was $250 in it for him?"

Mr. Purser—It is just as you choose to take it. I gave you the words he used.—Applause.

Mr. Cowan—He says to take it as you like. That is the answer of the man who says that Geo. Stephens tried to bribe him. What would you have done if you had been in Mr. Purser's place and Geo. Stephens had tried to bribe you?"

A Voice—Purser's all right! and the meeting was interrupted. Several Reformers and Conservatives tried to keep order, and after a while Mr. Cowan continued, with frequent interruptions and an extensive outline of the Grand Trunk Pacific scheme.

SPEAKS IN FRENCH.
J. W. Levesque, the eloquent Montreal notary, was the last speaker. He spoke in French and earnestly extolled the many virtues of the premier, stating that it was to him alone Canada owed her foreign market. He eulogized the Grand Trunk Pacific scheme and compared it with the C. P. R., which, he said, was built by the Conservatives at a cost of $130,000,000.

Referring to the charges against Mr. Stephens the speaker asked the people to go ahead and work for him as though the charges had never been made till they were proven in the courts. He closed with an eloquent plea on behalf of the candidate.

N. H. Stevens for three cheers for George Stephens. These were followed by a wildly enthusiastic Clements demonstration, when the candidate was carried through the crowd by his supporters, with plaudits. Cheers were also given for Purser, Boyer, Borden and Laurier and the great gathering gradually dispersed.

HALF A DOZEN.

Oh, I guess there are two sides to that story.

Hut! if it's a family row I guess there are at least half a dozen sides to it.

Fruit is Nature's Laxative.
Fruit contains certain principles which act like a charm on the liver—and keep the whole system well and strong. But these principles in the fruit juices are too weak to have any marked effect on the internal organs. The value of

or Fruit Liver Tablets
lies in the secret process by which they are made. The fruit juices are so combined that they have an entirely different effect from fresh fruit. Their action is the action of fruit greatly intensified. They have a marked effect on the liver—toning it up—making it active. "Fruitatives" are, without doubt, the only complete cure for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney Troubles.
