GATHERING AT HOLY TRINITY

Delightful Social Evening
Spent by Congregation
In Lecture Hall of Church.

Earnest Address of Eloquent Young
Rector—A Year of Exceptional Progress.

Holy Trinity Sunday School was crowded last evening with the members of Holy Trinity Church, who had met in social intercourse to get better acquainted. A splendid program was provided, after which a delightful lunch was served.

The Rev. T. Beverley Smith was the only speaker on the program. Mr. Smith briefly referred to the progress the church had made since it had ceased to be a mission church and had become self-sustaining. He expressed his appreciation of the splendid gathering. It had the right ring to it and was a social gathering in more than name. He thanked the ladies of the congregation who made the preparations for the evening and especially he thanked the ladies and gentlemen who had so kindly provided the program.

Mr. Smith dwelt at some length upon the work done by those in the parish. He thanked all for their forbearance in not complaining at his laxity in sick visiting but the neglect in this respect had been one of necessity. Within the last year and two months 45 members had been added to the church. In regard to the finances, he could speak with the greatest gratitude. It was just two years ago to the day that Holy Trinity had been deprived of the revenue of $500 per annum. In addition, there was a note in the bank for $800 and the Church Warden spent $570 on improvements to the church and rectory. The Sunday School and Mite Society had successfully taken charge of these debts and the past year's expenses had been more than met by the splendid contributions given at the Easter Sunday collections. Mr. Smith referred to the various societies in the church and the good work they were doing, including the Missionary Society, the Women's Auxiliary, the Junior Auxiliary, the Mite Society, the Gleaners Union, the Sick Visiting Committee, the Willing Workers and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. The congregation had many things to thank the Mite Society for including the organ and waistcoating. The Willing Workers had about fifty or sixty members. There would be more if there were any more legible members in the parish but the Willing Workers had their all. The Willing Workers was a society organized to utilize the talents of the members for the good of the church. They had done a good work, adding to the church revenue and cheering many a sick room. Now they were working with a definite object, namely to put down a cork matting in the church. To the choir of Holy Trinity Church all the congregation should express their thanks. It was the least expensive and the best and was noted for two things, harmony and good music. Never a ripple sufficed the surface of the choir of Holy Trinity Church.

The program furnished last evening was a good one. The recitations of Miss Flo. Glass, the clever daughter of Douglas Glass, manager of Bank of Montreal, were much enjoyed. Miss Glass is not only a brilliant elocutionist but is also an author of considerable ability and her selection, "The Tattered Union Jack" was the product of her own poetic pen. Another contributor to the program whose renditions were worthy of more than ordinary praise, was Jasper Wilson, tenor soloist in the Park Street Methodist Church choir. Mr. Wilson's solo "Jean, My Jean" was magnificent. He has a splendid voice and sang this sweet and song with a fine interpretation and expression.

Little Miss Macdonald, a tot of five from Wallaceburg, proved an exceptionally clever entertainer. Her two solos, "I'll give you all my toys," and "Won't you play house with me," were charmingly rendered.

Miss Rava Stegman also contributed a particularly fine solo. Miss Stegman's rendition was a very pretty lullaby "So Sleep in Your Cradle." It was grand.

Miss Heyward is always a charming soloist, and her song "Glad Dreams" was warmly encored. Miss Edmondson's instrumental solo was one of the pleasing features of the entertainment.

Honore Davis' solo "Sing me to Sleep" was rendered in his usual able style and he received a warm recall.

The accompanists during the evening were Miss Rose Morrison, the clever organist of Holy Trinity Church, Miss Whitebread, Mrs. F. D. Laurie, Mrs. R. V. Bray.

Ald. Thomas Scullard presided during the evening and was always made an excellent chairman.

BIG DOINGS

Trades and Labor Councils Will Contribute to the Great Summer Carnival.

Every day some new arrangement is made to forward the Old Boys' Reunion and to make it as successful as possible. It is indeed gratifying to the energetic gentlemen who have the matter in hand to see so much enthusiasm and good-will shown by the citizens and private organizations generally.

Last evening the chairman of the Old Boys' Committee, J. M. Pike, and Secretary Seane met the members of the local Trades and Labor Council—Messrs. Wm. Fisher, Wm. Draper, Frank Crump, J. Leber and A. Riddell—in Assistant Secretary Aiken's office and arranged for a day of the reunion to be devoted to the tradesmen and laborers of the city. This day will not be managed upon the union basis, but every laborer in the city will have an opportunity of participating in the day's events, and is urged to be present.

It is proposed to have a labor procession with every trade represented in some display, and it is hoped that the merchants and manufacturers will also take part in the parade display and encourage the scheme. Base ball and other games will also be played on that day on Tecumseh Park and there will be no reason why this day should not be one of the most successful of the reunion.

A meeting of the different members of the Trades and Labor Council will be held on Friday to complete arrangements and also prepare a program for this day.

SAID FAREWELL

Hamilton Presentation to Rev. J. W. and Mrs. Hoyt on Their Departure for Chatham.

To-day's Hamilton Spectator says: The members of the congregation of the Victoria Avenue Baptist church gathered last night in the church to say final farewell to Rev. J. W. Hoyt, who leaves to-day or tomorrow for Chatham on behalf of the pastorate of the First Baptist church in that city.

Frank Weir presided at the meeting and introduced a short program as follows:

Selection—Sunday school orchestra.
Solo—Miss Plain.
Piano solo—Miss Morris.
Recitation—Miss Sweet.
Selection—Orchestra.
Solo—A. Houlding.

Interpersed between these numbers were words of farewell and appreciation from J. Baxter, on behalf of the deacons of the church; J. A. Jones, of the Sunday school; J. Peebles, chairman of the Board of managers; A. Koeppe, of the Bible class, and speeches from brother pastors in the city, Rev. J. C. Syme, of the James street Baptist church; Rev. James Bracken, of the Ferguson avenue church, and Rev. Mr. Ray, of the Wentworth street church. Regrets were read from Rev. Mr. Riddiford and Rev. T. J. Bennett, of the Herkimer Baptist church.

At the conclusion of the program B. C. Hamill stepped forward and presented to Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt a handsome clock and set of silver spoons respectively. He also read an address of appreciation on behalf of the congregation. The address was as follows:

"To Dear Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hoyt: It is after a long period of friendship and labor together in the service of the Lord that it has fallen to our lot to say farewell. But knowing that it is the Lord's work in which we are engaged, and we believe that, as we look to Him for guidance, so has He guided you, and has seen fit to remove you from our midst to another field, where you may continue that labor of love to which you have been appointed.

"During your term of service in this church the most kindly relations have always existed, and the energetic and untiring efforts that have been put forth for the deepening of our spirituality and for the ingathering of souls have been much appreciated by us all.

"And those of us who have had days of sorrow by reason of sickness and greater sorrow in the loss of loved ones whom the Lord has taken, wish to express gratitude for the tender words of comfort, cheer and hope, and the kindly acts that could emanate only from hearts moved by the Spirit which characterized the life of our Redeemer, Jesus Christ.

"Time has only served to bind and link us more closely together, as pastor and people, and while it is hard for us to sever this relationship, yet we must conform to the will of our Maker, and in so doing we would ask your acceptance of these gifts as a slight memento of our esteem for you as pastor and wife. Moreover, we heartily commend you to the people to whom you have been called, feeling that what is our loss is surely their gain, and wishing you Godspeed in all your undertakings, we remain, your friends in His service.

"Signed on behalf of Victoria Avenue Baptist church.

"JOHN PEEBLES,
Chairman Board of Management.
J. E. BAKER,
Chairman of Deacons.

"FRANK WEIR,
President B. Y. P. U."

SOCIETY ADOPTS CONSTITUTION

Another Largely Attended and Successful Meeting of the Philharmonic Association.

Work of the Organization Outlined—
Executive Committee to Meet and Inaugurate Work.

A very large and most enthusiastic meeting of musicians and singers was held last evening in Harrison Hall in reference to the forming of a Philharmonic Society.

At the last meeting, held one week ago, it was decided to form this Society and officers were elected with our worthy Mayor at the head. An executive committee and a committee on by-laws and constitution were appointed. Since their appointment this last committee has been working energetically and at last night's meeting they presented a report and submitted a draft of by-laws. These by-laws were read to the meeting and passed and the formation of the Society was completed.

Those present last evening were Mesdames J. T. O'Keefe, G. S. Heyward, S. Stephenson, S. C. Walker, E. B. Arthur, and Milton Bogart, Messrs. S. McGeorge, Vera Smith, E. McGeorge, L. Hillman, Bertie Birch, Mrs. Rankin, Eva Degge, Gertrude Scott, May Peate, Edna Dennis, P. Rose, Flossie Bogart, and Carnovsky, and Messrs. J. W. Flewes, E. B. Arthur, W. E. McKeough, J. B. Rankin, R. V. Bray, C. E. Monteith, Carnovsky, M. Bogart, John Reeve, S. Stephenson, and many others.

The constitution as presented by Mr. Stephenson, chairman of the by-laws committee, was a very satisfactory one and with a very few changes was passed by the meeting. The object of the Society will be to encourage the study of good vocal music in the Maple City, and to present to the music-loving citizens of Chatham oratorios and works of some of the old masters. The Society will commence rehearsals early in September and will continue on from then for a period of six months. All officers are elected for a term of one year only. There shall be honorary and active members, and the executive committee were instructed to canvass the city for singers who are eligible to join the Society.

The meeting was a very satisfactory one indeed from every standpoint. Everything passed off harmoniously and in order, and the Society was well launched into the sea of public patronage. It is gratifying to the officers to see the interest and enthusiasm which is being taken in this Society and, of this continues, and no one has any reason to think otherwise, Chatham will hear something extraordinary good from this Society during the coming musical season.

Dr. R. V. Bray, chairman of the executive committee, has called a special meeting of that committee for next Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the offices of Crown Attorney H. D. Smith, Harrison Hall. All members are requested to be present as business of importance will be transacted.

NARROW ESCAPE

Rev. E. E. Scott, Late of the Maple City Meets Painful Accident.

[Brantford, April 25. — (Special).—While making an inspection of the Y. M. C. A. building here to-day, Rev. E. E. Scott, a Methodist minister minister from Galt, fell down a dark stairway, sustaining rather serious injuries. The reverend gentleman was slightly fractured, his side bruised and an arm and wrist sprained, besides he sustained a severe nervous shock and was unconscious for some time. His athletic training and presence of mind saved him from a worse accident. Though suffering much pain, Rev. Mr. Scott lectured in Sydenham-street Church to-night.

Rev. Mr. Scott was formerly an esteemed Maple City pastor.
