Judge Latchford Asks a Very Pointed Question.

Farmers Expected to Sacrifice Lands For Toronto.

Toronto, Oct. 14 .- "Would not they appear very selfish not to allow their ms to be used to provide cheap power for the manufacturers in Toronto quired Mr. Justice Latchford yesterday of Mr. W. M. German, K. C., M. P., of Welland, on the latter's remark that the men employed in the erection of the Hydro-Electric power line were "not working in the vicinity because the farmers would not let them work." Mr. German said the farmers were using pitchforks and other violent means to prevent them working. "The workmen are summoned before the magistrate, and they simply appear and plead guilty to trespass and pay the penalty; that is all there is about it. They don't say they have any legal right to come on the lands," said Mr. German, and after his lordship's question as to that appearing selfish conduct on the part of the farmers he said that the proper way would be for the commission to buy a strip of a man's land for a right-of-way for the line.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 14.-Captain Ber nier, commander of the Arctic, arrived at Ottawa this morning. He called to pay his respects to Sir Wilfrid, but found pay his respects to Sir Wilfrid, but found finding the Premier engaged at a Cabinet meeting, deferred his visit. At the Marine Department the captain found that Itor. Mr. Brodeur was in Montreal. Captain Bernier will remain in Ottawa for some days, completing the report of his trip. He has brought maps showing the regions in the north which he has aimeved to Canada. They comprise a half million square miles. Capt. Bernier declared his belief that Cook had reached the pole, as his records and observations, in his opinion, established his claim, while the notes Peary prepared against Cook, in the cymion of Captain Bernier, did not prove anything. Captain Bernier, did not prove anything. Captain Bernier, will speak before the Ottawa Canadian Club on Saturday.

A. O. U. W. SUIT.

Charged With Publishing Matter Injurious to Order.

(Special Despatch to the Times) Toronto, Oct. 14.-The Grand Lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workof the Ancient Order of United Workmen began suit in the Jury Assizes before Justice Britton this morning to secure an injunction against J. C. Sheppard, of Kirkfield, Victoria County, to prevent him from publishing in newspapers throughout Canada statements derogatory to the Order. The claim is that assertions tending to injure the order were published in the Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, and in the Brantford Expositor. As a result of these, it is maintained, the Order has been injured in its credit, reputation and business.

Sheppard's defence is that being a nember of the A.O.U.W. and having benefit policy in it of $2,000 he greatly concerned in the benefit of is greatly concerned in the benefit of the Order, and as it appeared that the membership of the Order was largely decreasing and the rates increasing he desired to have the matter brought to the attention of the other members.
