

bread to be flesh, and wine to be blood. We cannot... The general may be said to prosper in prayer...

Protestant & Evangelical Witness.

SATURDAY, APRIL 3, 1861.

Steam, Electricity, and the Gospel.

The rapidity with which intelligence is circulated... The wondrous power of steam and electricity has greatly promoted the intercourse of the nations of the earth...

We need not tell the men of business of the influence of steam and electricity upon his affairs. These powers have given an impulse to trade and commerce...

2. The Romanist can do without the Bible. The moment justly and exactly at the bidding of the Pope. What need is there for the Bible? Opposition to the sacred book is a mere pretext...

Several petitions were presented to the House of Assembly... The following is the substance of the petition presented by the Rev. Mr. Cooper...

That the general may be said to prosper in prayer is necessary. "It" as his own mind...

Priest McDonald and the Pope.

It is a curious thing to see a man who professes to be a Catholic, and who professes to believe in the infallibility of the Pope...

Dear Sir: To you and to those whom you represent, I would say I thank you heartily for your affectionate address...

Infallibility of the Church of Rome.

External exhibition of the whole Christian Church to the faith of Rome having been secured by the establishment of the doctrine of infallibility...

That the Roman pontiff alone can be called universal. That he alone has the right to preside over all bishops assembled in a general council...

That the Roman Church has been, is, and will continue to be a Catholic Church. That no man may be subject to their allegiance...

Young Men's Christian Association and Literary Institute. The Rev. A. W. Nicholson lectured on Thursday evening...

LOCAL.

LUNATIC ASYLUM OF NEW BRUNSWICK. The Report of the Board of Commissioners of the Lunatic Asylum for 1860 has been kindly forwarded to us...

On the 31st Oct. 1859, the date of last report, there were one hundred and fifty-four patients on the record...

At a meeting held at St. James' Church, Port Hill, on Monday, April 1st, Rev. H. E. Strachan in the chair, Messrs. Thomas Adams and William Haggard were appointed Church Wardens for the ensuing year...

Address to Rev. Mr. Crawford.

Permit me on behalf of a few of your friends, in this mission station, to express to you our warmest regards...

Address to Rev. Mr. Crawford.

Dear Sir: To you and to those whom you represent, I would say I thank you heartily for your affectionate address...

Address to Rev. Mr. Crawford.

Dear Sir: To you and to those whom you represent, I would say I thank you heartily for your affectionate address...

Address to Rev. Mr. Crawford.

Dear Sir: To you and to those whom you represent, I would say I thank you heartily for your affectionate address...

Dear Sir: To you and to those whom you represent, I would say I thank you heartily for your affectionate address...

LOCAL.

LUNATIC ASYLUM OF NEW BRUNSWICK. The Report of the Board of Commissioners of the Lunatic Asylum for 1860 has been kindly forwarded to us...

On the 31st Oct. 1859, the date of last report, there were one hundred and fifty-four patients on the record...

At a meeting held at St. James' Church, Port Hill, on Monday, April 1st, Rev. H. E. Strachan in the chair, Messrs. Thomas Adams and William Haggard were appointed Church Wardens for the ensuing year...

Address to Rev. Mr. Crawford.

Permit me on behalf of a few of your friends, in this mission station, to express to you our warmest regards...

Address to Rev. Mr. Crawford.

Dear Sir: To you and to those whom you represent, I would say I thank you heartily for your affectionate address...

Address to Rev. Mr. Crawford.

Dear Sir: To you and to those whom you represent, I would say I thank you heartily for your affectionate address...

Address to Rev. Mr. Crawford.

Dear Sir: To you and to those whom you represent, I would say I thank you heartily for your affectionate address...

Dear Sir: To you and to those whom you represent, I would say I thank you heartily for your affectionate address...

LOCAL.

LUNATIC ASYLUM OF NEW BRUNSWICK. The Report of the Board of Commissioners of the Lunatic Asylum for 1860 has been kindly forwarded to us...

On the 31st Oct. 1859, the date of last report, there were one hundred and fifty-four patients on the record...

At a meeting held at St. James' Church, Port Hill, on Monday, April 1st, Rev. H. E. Strachan in the chair, Messrs. Thomas Adams and William Haggard were appointed Church Wardens for the ensuing year...

Address to Rev. Mr. Crawford.

Permit me on behalf of a few of your friends, in this mission station, to express to you our warmest regards...

Address to Rev. Mr. Crawford.

Dear Sir: To you and to those whom you represent, I would say I thank you heartily for your affectionate address...

Address to Rev. Mr. Crawford.

Dear Sir: To you and to those whom you represent, I would say I thank you heartily for your affectionate address...

Address to Rev. Mr. Crawford.

Dear Sir: To you and to those whom you represent, I would say I thank you heartily for your affectionate address...

Dear Sir: To you and to those whom you represent, I would say I thank you heartily for your affectionate address...

Summary of L.

Dear Sir: To you and to those whom you represent, I would say I thank you heartily for your affectionate address...

Dear Sir: To you and to those whom you represent, I would say I thank you heartily for your affectionate address...

Dear Sir: To you and to those whom you represent, I would say I thank you heartily for your affectionate address...

Address to Rev. Mr. Crawford.

Permit me on behalf of a few of your friends, in this mission station, to express to you our warmest regards...

Address to Rev. Mr. Crawford.

Dear Sir: To you and to those whom you represent, I would say I thank you heartily for your affectionate address...

Address to Rev. Mr. Crawford.

Dear Sir: To you and to those whom you represent, I would say I thank you heartily for your affectionate address...

Address to Rev. Mr. Crawford.

Dear Sir: To you and to those whom you represent, I would say I thank you heartily for your affectionate address...

Dear Sir: To you and to those whom you represent, I would say I thank you heartily for your affectionate address...