

Install. T. J. Dale took a trip East this week, combining business with pleasure.

Porter's Hill. The new Bethany church will be opened with special services on Sunday, Sept. 27th, and a meeting on the day following.

Kingsbridge. Much sympathy is expressed for the esteemed sexton of the R. C. church, Mr. P. O'Connor, upon the death of his wife, who after a lingering illness died last week.

Dunlop. Luke Ellard and son, of Goderich, have been wielding their brushes out here on some of our residences.

Demiller. One of our oldest residents has departed in the person of Mrs. Long, who died on Sunday at the great age of 90 years.

Leoburn. FRUIT.—Fruit is plentiful along the lake shore, especially plums and apples. The Rev. D. Morrison, of Owen Sound, preached in the Presbyterian church last Sunday.

SEEDING.—Some of the farmers have their fall wheat sowed; others cannot put it in on account of the recent rains.

TEMPERANCE.—The District Lodge of I. O. G. T. was held at Leoburn last Friday. The attendance was very good considering the busy time of the year.

PARAMOUNT. Wm. Murray is spending a fortnight with friends in London. Some grain is still in the fields on account of the wet weather.

BRUSSELS. Business in Brussels is picking up. During the season just passed trade has been somewhat dull, but the fall mill has put quite an amount of money in circulation, and thereby helped the town to a considerable extent.

BORN. At Leoburn, 7th inst., the wife of John Litchler, of a daughter, 09 20 00. At Ridgewood, on Friday Sept. 11th, the wife of Charles Young, farm foreman, of a son.

DECEASED. In Colborne, on Sunday, Sept. 13th, 1885, Jane Buchanan, relict of the late John Long, aged 90 years, month and 13 days. In Ashfield, on Saturday, 20th September, Mary, beloved wife of Patrick O'Connor, aged forty-three years.

THE CALEDONIAN GAMES.—The games on Tuesday last, owing to the heavy rain, during the afternoon did come off in the park, as advertised. The morning was dull and heavy with a leaden-colored sky, and shortly before noon the rain began to descend, and kept on continuously all day and all night, for that matter. A large number of visitors had come in during the forenoon, and the disappointment at the unpropitious weather was consequently keenly felt.

and they pocketed first money by running over the course. In the afternoon it was decided to hold the piping, dancing and dress contests in the town hall, and there was a large turnout of interesting spectators. Amongst those in costume were pipers, Irishmen, Maids and Masses, dancers, Potholingham, Anderson and Patterson, H. Macintyre, C. Sinclair, Robt. McKay, Jas. Ballantyne, J. Rattray, Frank Wilson, Bella McPherson, Lizie Sinclair, J. Stewart and others. The competition was keen, especially between the young folk, and the judges, McGregor, Dunsmuir and Ballantyne had a close job on their shoulders. In the evening concert was held in the hall, at which Charles Kelly, of Collingwood, the celebrated basso, h. Kerr, of Lucknow, a rising young bass soloist, and Maggie Barr and Ella Cole the popular Scottish singers, appeared to great advantage. The concert was the finest ever given in the town, and society is congratulated for having secured so high an order of musical talent on the occasion. In addition to the musical character of the entertainment an exhibition of swordmanship was given by Prof. Reid, of Philadelphia, and McGregor, of Hamilton, which was of a high order. Prof. Reid also performed a number of feats with the sword to the great delight of the audience. The chief chairman, was ably assisted by Chief Shaw.

"THE QUEENS".—This first-class hotel is not under the management of the Messrs. Stretton and has been refitted from tarrot to cellar. The host of visitors who attended on Caledonian day are loud in their praise of the treatment they received at the "Queens".

BBAR WITH US. While we quote some more of those flattering Press Notices.

The Huron SIGNAL is in its thirty-seventh year, and it is still about as young and frisky as ever.—[Parkdale Times.]

The Goderich SIGNAL has entered on its 37th year of publication. The SIGNAL is a well edited and lively local journal, and under the control of the McGillicuddy Brothers has become a great influence in Huron county.—[Dundas Banner.]

NEWSPAPER.—The Goderich SIGNAL has entered upon its sixth year under the management of the Messrs. McGillicuddy. The SIGNAL is the pioneer journal of Huron county, being now in its thirty-seventh year, and is today more enterprising and energetic than ever it was.—[Clinton New Era.]

The Goderich SIGNAL has entered upon its 6th year under its present management. The SIGNAL is a first-class paper, and one that well deserves the liberal patronage of the people of Huron.—[Lucknow Sentinel.]

The Goderich SIGNAL, under the management of the Messrs. McGillicuddy has entered upon its sixth year. The SIGNAL is now 37 years old, is an able and welcome visitor to our sanctum.—[Stratford Age.]

The Huron SIGNAL is over 37 years of age and like good wine it improves with age. Under its present management it is a fearless and influential journal and a credit to the enterprising town whose interests it so ably advocates.—[Watford Advocate-Advertiser.]

The Huron SIGNAL has entered upon its sixth year under the present popular and vigorous management. May its signals continue to be timely warnings against the pitfalls of bad government which unhappily exist in this fair Dominion. Stead fastly the red light.—[Woodstock Sentinel-Review.]
