Water Street.

At the City Hall.

Deputy Mayor Martin presided at the City Council meeting last evening. There were present also Councillors Conker, Ryan, Channing and Myrick. The Robinson Export Co. will likely be given an order for hose to be used in the parks.

Engineer Ryan reported that the work of shovelling the snow from the belt line was going on well. The belt line will be open next week.

Wood kindling in future will not be supplied to the Water Store without a "requisition."

Snow will be removed from Remble's Hill Road and Cunningham's Street. Mr. Power will take Watchman Fogarty's place on night duty.

F. J. Morris, K. C., sent in a copy of a letter that he had sent to the Colonial Secretary outlining proposed legislation that the Council is desirous of having passed. He will draft a bill to submit to the Legislature on the lines contained therein should the Council desire same.

Re. Hon. Sir E. P. Morris acknowledged the receipt of a letter re the proposed legislation in connection with the City Council. He asked to have a draft submitted in order that he might lay it before the Government. This will be done.

The householders who have been wasting water by letting their pipes run will again be notified, and failing to comply with the law will be summoned. F. J. Morris, K. C., wrote saying that he had examined the deeds of the Coady property submitted by Hon. M. P. Gibbs, and found that the title was invested in Elizabeth Coady. After the Engineer's report was read, pay rolls passed the meeting closed.

McMurdo's Store News.

SATURDAY, Feb. 24, 1912.

It is only the first time that we have to persuade customers to buy Sanident Tooth Paste, after that the ask for it regularly. It is a real triumph for a dentifrice which has not been extensively advertised to have gained such a reputation and such a vogue in a few weeks, with so many first class tooth preparations in the market already. The reason is, of course, Sanident. Sanident Tooth Paste is a little better than any other; and in the long run it is the tooth paste which keeps the teeth in the best order, especially if, as in this case, it is pleasant to use, that is most sought after. We have consistently recommended Sanident Tooth Brush for using the paste with, and we attribute not a little of the success of the paste to this circumstance. The Sanident Brush is quite the best and most practical of Tooth Brushes. Price, 35c. Paste, 25c. a tube.

Note From Elder Keslake

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—I find that not a few people are crediting me with being the author of the letter signed "Citizen" which appeared in your columns on Feb. 21. In reply to Archbishop Howley's Pastoral Letter. Kindly permit me to say I am not "Citizen." Nor was the letter written by a Seven Day Adventist. In discussing theological questions I have hitherto invariably written over my own signature, and at present have no intention of departing from that custom.

Yours truly,

C. H. KESLAKE.

Mr. E. M. Jackson's Remarks

At Board of Trade Meeting.

Mr. Jackson's remarks at the Board of Trade meeting "were not quoted by us," he says, "in an exactly correct manner yesterday. He argued that it would handicap the small business man and the export importer, but did not state that it would compel them to go out of business."
