Somebody's sons are called to the fight,
Will be yours, or mine?
Somebody's sons must fight for the right,
Will be mine, or thine.
Somebody's sons on their lips a song,
Will be yours, or mine?
Somebody's sons in the pastime play,
Will be yours, or mine?
Somebody's return, how many stay?
Will be yours, or mine?

Somebody's husband is among the dead,
Will be yours, or mine?
Somebody's children will beg for bread,
Will be mine, or thine?
Somebody's tears must walk alone,
Will be yours, or mine?
Somebody's sleep in our hearts is the dream,
Will be yours, or mine?
Somebody's to the Lord of Hosts,
Will be yours, or mine?
Somebody's courage and strength to bear,
Will be yours, or mine?

Somebody's lover is coming home,
Will be yours, or mine?
Somebody's flag and honor won,
Will be yours, or mine?
Somebody's tenderly we will welcome them,
Will be yours, or mine?
Somebody's from their tired eyes
Will be yours, or mine?
Somebody's of all the dying men,
Will be yours, or mine?
Somebody's horror that in them lies,
Will be yours, or mine?

Somebody's son was called to the cross,
Will be yours, or mine?
Somebody's not yours or mine,
Will be yours, or mine?
Somebody's pray in the hour of her loss,
Will be yours, or mine?
Somebody's be another's son, not mine,
Will be yours, or mine?
Somebody's her hopes, as we have ours,
Will be yours, or mine?
Somebody's in the grave were laid,
Will be yours, or mine?
Somebody's more than give them all,
Will be yours, or mine?
Somebody's death is the price to be paid,
Will be yours, or mine?

Holy Name Society.

Yesterday, the members of the Holy Name Society attended the 8th Mass at the R. C. Cathedral and received Holy Communion in a body. In the afternoon members in large numbers visited the Cathedral and made a half hour's devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, which all repaired to the Aulla Hall, St. Bon's College, where they were entertained with a lecture on "The Holy Name Society" by Rev. Fr. McNeil. At the close a vote of thanks was passed by the Society, and the Rev. Fr. McNeil, Spiritual Director, was accorded a hearty welcome for his interesting address.

ST. PIERRE BULLETIN.

PARIS, via St. Pierre, Mar. 20. At Notre Dame de Lorette we captured trenches communicating from the height taken yesterday, towards Ablain village. We destroyed these trenches after killing, ejecting and capturing the Germans.

In the Argonne between Bolante and Four de Paris, we advanced 150 metres after a fierce engagement. In Conservatoire Forest we repulsed last night a German counter-attack and held on to the ground gained Thursday. At Epargnes we captured, east of our positions, a salient in which the enemy had managed to hold on since last month's engagement. We then repulsed two counter-attacks during yesterday and a third during last night.

Midnight—Day rather quiet on greatest part of front. In the Aisne Valley, artillery duels reported. In Champagne, opposite Hill 196, N.E. of Meuse, the enemy after firing shells on our positions, delivered an infantry attack, which was repulsed. The Germans suffered heavy losses.

NO TRUTH IN REPORT.

LONDON, March 21. The Naval Censor says there is absolutely no truth in the report that Vice-Admiral Carden was killed or wounded in the Dardanelles.

SPANISH SHIP CAPTURED.

LONDON, March 21. A Spanish ship, laden with iron ore, proceeding to a German port, has been captured by a British cruiser off the Goodwin Sands.

ITALIAN RESERVE OFFICERS.

ROME, March 21. Italian reserve officers of all classes will be recalled to the colors to-day, to serve until December.

AIR RAID ON PARIS.

PARIS, March 21. About 1.30 o'clock this morning an alarm being given that Zeppelins were approaching, the measures prescribed by the military authorities were carried out. Trumpets and firemen's horns warned the people and complete darkness reigned all most immediately over the whole city and environs. The Zeppelins dropped bombs in Paris and in Neuilly-sur-Seine, which caused fire. It is believed two airships participated in the raid. Several bombs were dropped in various parts of the city, starting small fires, which were quickly extinguished. Most of the damage is reported from the suburbs. Seven bombs were dropped at Asnières, doing considerable damage and injuring three persons. At Courbevoie two workmen were injured, and at Levallois, a building collapsed, burying two men.

FORT OF KILID BAHK DESTROYED.

LONDON, March 21. A despatch from Tenedos says that the fort of Kilid Bahr has been destroyed.

THE GERMAN AEROPLANE.

DEAL, England, March 21. A German aeroplane dropped bombs near the coast yesterday. No damage is reported.

THE GERMAN SUBMARINES.

LONDON, March 20. The German submarines during the week ending March 17th, resulted in the loss of eight British vessels with a total tonnage of 22,525, out of 1,539 arrivals and sailings, according to summary issued by Admiralty.

CARDINAL AGILICARDI DEAD.

ROME, March 20. Cardinal Agilicardi, Chancellor of to-day at the age of 83. He was the Roman Catholic Church and Sub-deacon of the Sacred College, died Titular Bishop of Albano.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

LONDON, March 20. Six battleships re-entered the Dardanelles Straits on Friday, according to a despatch received here from the Island of Tenedos. This resumption of action after the loss on Thursday of the French battleship Bouvet and of the British ships Irresistible and Ocean, failed to accomplish, for the reason that unfavorable weather conditions made operations impossible.

NOTHING DOING.

LONDON, March 20. Relative inaction prevails along both battle fronts in Europe which again seem to have relapsed into the condition of siege warfare which prevailed during the winter. Austrian reports, by way of Berlin, claim that the Russian offensive movement in the Carpathians, through the Lupkow Pass has resulted in failure, but direct reports from both Vienna and Petrograd agree that Austrians as well as Russians are making attacks and counter-attacks in the Carpathians without any decisive results. Germans still are bombing Oesewitz, without success, according to the Russians, who claim to have destroyed the advance trenches of their antagonists. Neither side reports any action on the western front during the past week worthy to rank as important.

ONLY 64 SAVED.

PARIS, March 20. Only 64 members of the crew of the French battleship Bouvet escaped death when the warship was sunk. The regular crew of the Bouvet numbered 621 men.

FIFTY-TWO KILLED ON INFLEXIBLE.

ATHENS, March 20. Fifty-two men, including several officers, were killed on the British battleship Inflexible in Thursday's battle in the Dardanelles.

Lt.-Com. Howley Badly Wounded.

Mr. James P. Howley, F. G. S., has received a cable from the Admiralty, intimating that his son Richard A. Howley, Engineer Lieutenant Commander on H. M. S. Irresistible, which was put out of action while bombarding the Dardanelles, has been badly wounded. His many friends in St. John's as well as elsewhere will hope for his speedy recovery. Lieutenant Howley was formerly on the Implacable, then on the Invincible, and latterly transferred to the Irresistible.

WORKMEN IN SEA FIGHT.

An amusing incident in connection with the recent North Sea Battle has just come to light. It is said that there were a number of workmen on board the Tiger carrying out some comparatively unimportant repairs. There was no way of disposing of these men ashore, and they were taken into action.

While the great majority of the workmen caught the fighting fever when they gathered what was on, a few were extremely nervous, and did not at all relish being so unexpectedly hurled into a probable sea fight. One of the workmen, in fact, lost complete control of himself, and ultimately was put into a straight jacket and placed somewhat unceremoniously on one side. A bluejacket, while on his way to the magazine, could not refrain from stopping to have a few words with the "trussed" workman. "I suppose when you're at 'ome," he said, "you'll be one of these bloomin' arm-chair critics wot asks wot the navy is a-doin' of. Now you're goin' to 'bloomin' well see wot the navy's a-doin' of."

PLAY HOCKEY IN EDINBURGH.

Letters received by yesterday's mail gave an account of a musical entertainment held in the Haymarket Ice Rink, Edinburgh, recently, under the auspices of the Roschery Royal Scots Recruiting Committee and in aid of the Royal Scots War Emergency Fund. The various events proved very enjoyable, especially the ice hockey match between two teams from the Nfld. Regiment. The opposing teams were: N. Hunt, C.Q.M.S. Strong, Lieut. R. H. Tait, E. Munn, Corporal Churchill, E. Winter and Corporal Rendell. Second team—L. C. Burnham, Corporal Herder, L. C. Woods, R. Herder, L. C. Shortall, L. C. Hutchings and W. Grant. Lieut. Rendell acted as referee. As will be seen from the personnel of the teams the exhibition must have been a good one. The result was a draw, both sides scoring one goal.

C. M. B. C.

The regular weekly session of the Cathedral Men's Bible Class was held at the Synod Hall yesterday afternoon. Rev. J. Brinton presiding. The speaker was Mr. J. W. Withers who gave an interesting discourse on the war, during which particular reference was made to Germany's efficiency as a fighting machine, the education of her people, and her industrial progress. Mr. Withers showed clearly that while Germany had thus prospered materially her morals had become depraved, with the result that the false doctrine that might is right had been accepted by her people. At the close a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the lecturer for his interesting discourse.

Straight Talk.

One year ago Bear Brand Rubbers were unknown in Newfoundland. Today, everyone knows of them. Why? Because they have been in the public eye incessantly during the past twelve months.

Mr. Dealer, what does this mean to you? It means that your customers will DEMAND Bear Brand. If you cannot provide them they will go elsewhere. It means that if you stock Bear Brand, they will not let the unsold on your shelves. They will be constantly moving out, and you will be constantly moving new supplies in. That is the result of our advertising. We KNOW we have a first class article. Your customers also know it, either from personal experience this winter, or from their friends' glowing accounts of their wearing qualities.

People always buy the advertised article, and if they find it good, they buy again, and again, and always. We intend to continue our publicity campaign. Last year we sold a surprisingly large quantity; this year our sales will be immense. CLEVELAND TRADING COMPANY, ST. JOHN'S. mar22,11,wk,11

High Class Show

AT NICKEL THEATRE.

An elaborate programme has been arranged for the Nickel Theatre this evening. One of the greatest films ever produced: "The Antique Engagement Ring," by the Viagrag artists will be presented. It is a beautiful story of love. Dorothy Kelly and James Morrison are in the leading roles. Another two-reel film is "Moonshine Molly" which is very cleverly acted. "Only a Sister" is also an attractive film, and there will also be a comedy reel. Everyone can help by attending the Nickel Theatre these days. A goodly sum is still needed, so take in every show.

STRANDED CHINESE.—Arrangements are now being made for the transportation of the stranded Chinese seamen by the Durango which sails for Liverpool on Wednesday.

NOTE OF THANKS.—Mrs. A. Marten wishes to thank Mr. Jas. Downton for his kindness in returning the $5 note picked up by him, which was lost by her son Augustus, on Friday last.—adv.

STRAYAWAY FOUND. A little five-year-old boy named Gladney, who lost his way, was found wandering down King's Bridge Road yesterday. He was taken to the East End Fire Hall where he remained until late last night when his parents came for him from Spencer Street.

Fads and Fashions.

Taffeta is in evidence everywhere.

Some of the new hats are only an inch high.
Sports coats for spring are made of chinilla.

Silk covert cloth is one of the new materials.
Vols and taffeta are a fashionable combination.

A GOOD PLACE TO COME for your Groceries, Stationery, Stamps, Picture Postcards, Papers, Soft Drinks, Candy, etc., is WALKER'S Cash Grocery, 27 Charlton St. (off Springdale). Ask for your coupons and receive premiums up to May 1st, t.h.m.

Collars are all heights and materials, but silk and muslin seem most favored.

"OURS" IN THE WEST-END.

Crowded houses all the time at this popular little house and everyone delighted with the theatre; the singer, the pictures, the music and the management. Mr. Rossley hopes for an enlarged West End Theatre just as soon as convenient as he has a great deal of ground at the back. To-day and during the week, there will be shown many lovely pictures of Edinburgh, where our gallant soldiers are now stationed, through the kindness of Messrs. Ayre & Sons.
