MARKET REPORTS

indicate that there is no surplus of Anthracite Coal in the U.S. The shortage caused by the strike of Anthracite Miners last year has not been made up, and American hard coal will, in all probability, be hard to get and high priced. Coke is an excellent substitute for hard coal, and we have on hand a stock of same that will soon be disposed of, because a shortage of hard coal invariably creates an increased demand for our product.

We advise our customers to book their requirements as soon as possible.

ARRANGEMENTS FINALIZED.

The final meeting of the Regatta Committee was held last night in the T. A. Armoury, when all matters in connection with tomorrow's big event were finalized. President Hiscock announced that His Excellency the Governor had signified his intention of attending the course during the forenoon as a member of the committee assisting in any capacity. After luncheon with the committee, he will go to Government House, returning to the course in the afternoon in his official capacity. Lady Allard and Miss Allard will accompany him in the afternoon.

Rev. Joseph Pippy, P.P., St. Joseph's, requested the use of the flag, banns, and other Regatta ceremonies for the St. Joseph's Regatta. The request was granted on the understanding that the property be returned intact.

Several changes in the coxwains were allowed and crews were entered following which the drawing of stakes and buoys took place.

Treasurer Jas. Magill and Vice-President Healey on behalf of the L.S.P.U. presented a cheque for $30 to go towards the general fund. President Hiscock on behalf of the committee expressed appreciation of the generous donation. Should the weather look doubtful the committee will meet at 8.30 and decide if the event is to be postponed. At 9 o'clock they will assemble on the course to prepare for the first dash which starts at 9.30 sharp. The programme is as follows:—

Just Folks.

By EDGAR A. GUEST.

THE PASSING OF A TREE.

A fine old tree, now in the way, is being taken down to-day. A gang of men attacks its crest. Where once the robin built its nest, And those great priestly arms which blest

The worshippers who came to rest, Now fall and lie beside the road. To make a common truckman's load.

For years that friendly tree has stood The glory of the neighborhood. And it has heard the traffic's roar Each day grow nearer than before, And seen its brother trees go down Before the builders of the town.

Surely that fine old elm has known It must make room for steel and stone!

And now the axe is at its trunk. Its leafy arms in sorrow sunk. Its roots, which long have loved the earth, Are marked by grim destruction's girth.

The builders wait. Nearby is seen A greedy, pitiless machine. Ready to chew great holes where a friendly tree, so brave, so good,

I know not what these men shall build, What room with joy and laughter filled, What towers of beauty shall arise Beneath this space of sunny skies: Perhaps a temple shall be reared Where God is loved and God is feared. But nothing man can build shall be So lovely as this fine old tree.

A Luxury in Summer.

What greater luxury imaginable than lovely fragrant perfumes. Think of the association of nature's grandest flowers—the woodland violet—the delicate lily of the valley; you will be enraptured with this fragrant odor of Three Flowers combining all the most beautiful natural scents. In talcum, face powder, vanishing cream and compact powder you will find the THREE FLOWERS ODER. No toilet requisites will please you better than Three Flowers which is now obtainable at all drug and department stores.

He—"My views of bringing up a family are—"

She—"Never mind your views, I'll bring up the family. You go and bring up the coal."

Tommy (saying his prayers sleepily)—"Now I lay me down to sleep; I pray the Lord my soul to keep."

Pat had lost his job, and was disappointed. "How are ye?" asked his friend.

Ask the Way

To those prettier teeth which millions now enjoy

You see prettier teeth now wherever you look. A few years ago they were seen less often than now.

You cannot but realize that a change has come in methods of teeth cleaning. Won't you ask for a test and learn what brings those whiter, cleaner, safer teeth?

They fight film. Your teeth are coated with a viscous film. It clings to teeth, gets between the teeth and stays.

Film absorbs stains, then forms dingy coats. Tartar is based on film. That's why teeth lose luster.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acids. It holds the acids in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Two new ways now. No old-time tooth paste could effectively fight film. So dental science sought new methods, and two ways were found. One acts to curdle film, one to remove it, and without any harmful scouring.

That's why tooth troubles are so common—why so few escape.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear.

Watch the change. Watch the results for a few days. Then decide what this new method means to you and yours. Cut out the coupon now.
