BRONCHOS FOR SECOND TIME THIS SEASON PULLED OFF TRIPLE PLAY AGAINST THE ESKIMOS, BUT LOSE GAME

The Sacks Were Congested at the Time When Clayton Lined One Above Myres' Head, Who Speared It With One Hand, Heaved It to Wells, Who Tagged Man and Threw to Vivian, Who Did Likewise

When one team plays errorless ball, hits well, and, to top things off, makes a triple play and a double play, it is quite customary for that team to win. But that was not the case last night, for the Eskimos captured the contest, although they had two bad boots and from his Olympic victories at Stocksome plays which bore close resemblance to the bonehead variety.

What the Eskimos did to us was 3 to 2. It was a game resplendant with brilliant fielding, which fielding was culminated by a triple play, the second triple play which the Bronchos have made this season in a game against the Eskimos, some way in their judgment deemed the Bronchos have made this season in a game against the Eskimos, some way in their judgment deemed the Bronchos have made this season in a good enough record for any team; two triple plays a season is quite a record, but when these two triple plays are both made against the same team, it is nothing short of robbery from the other against the same team, it is nothing short of robbery from the other against the Some way in their judgment deemed so fellows' standpoint.

It all happened in the fifth inning, when the sacks were so congested that they were suffering. One run had come across the pan,

The net result of all of this was that the Eskimos were forced to take the field just at the time when they thought that they had the game in their mits. Then, to add insult to injury, the very next time that the Eskimos came to bat the first two men up were retired with a double play. Thus with two batted balls live of the hopeful special program, a large crowd turned out this afternoon, and speculation was probably keener than on the opening day. The feature handicap found Glayton 3; double plays, Wells to Streib to O'Brien; Clayton to Dudley to Isbell; passed balls, Roche, White; hit by pitched balls, by Myres 1; time, 1.43; umpire, Longanecker.
