The Tigers will hold a prestice to-night at Mewata Park at 5.20 sharp, and every one of the boys who intends making the trip to Edmonton should not miss a practice from now on, as the Eskimos are touted as having a very fast team this season. As the Cal-mary public would like to see the cham-plonship of the province stay in Cal-gary, it is up to the Tigers to get out and practice and show them that they are still the same old war dogs as of yore. Mel Brock, the Olympic runner, who has been gary to form a C. P. R. Athletic asso rying out for the Varsity team, is not likely to make it. He cannot catch the ball.

It is reported that Leckie, the well known halfback has returned to Queen's.

The Tigers are not very confident of their line. It is said to be weak this year.

Jack Newton has been spending all his energies the C. P. R. in getting the Argos into condition. He says there will be no signal practices until all the men are in
