TORONTO, Nov. 5.—Yesterday the run of live stock was 35 loads of fresh stock, with considerable stuff held over from last week. The tremendous run of last week left the market domoralized, but this week there is a partial recovery on account of the smaller numbers sent forward. The prices are not higher, but there is firmness. For fat cattle prices were 34c to 44c per 1b, with only a small amount of husiness. Most of the stockers sold for 30 per 1b or less, and few went higher than 34c; distillery were as much as $3.69 per cwi. The elections in the United States yesterday seem to have resulted in a sweeping victory for the Democrats all along the line, Even McKinley, the author of the Republican tariff measure upon which the party staked their all, appears to have been defeated. There seems to be little doubt that the next House of Representatives will be Democratic by a good working majority, there being gains for the party of trade freedom in almost every State. In Pennsylvania, the Democratic candidate for Governor has been elected, and in Massachussetts and the Democratic flowernors are chosen. Full returns from Michigan are not in at the time of writing, but there is a belief that the Democratic Governors are chosen. Full returns from Michigan are not in at the time of writing, but there is a belief that the Democratic who only had two out of the nine seats in the last House, have carried the majority of the districts. What is the significance of the Democratic idial wave? Let Mr. Blaine, who is virtually leader of the Republicans, be the witness. In his Western tour, the White Plumed Knight spoke in favor of Major McKinley at Cantou, Ohlo. He placed the issue between parties thus:

The contest that is now waging for membership of the next Congress, is not properly acontest between the Republican and Democratic parties. It is a contest between protectionless and free traders.

Taking Blaine at his word, the people, in large numbers, have decreed that they need less "protections are for the foliose on the corner of Wellington. DISASTER NEAR OWEN SOUND.

Collision on the C. P. R.-An Engineer Killed.

Injured in Oil City.

OWEN SOUND, Ont., Nov. 5.—A fatal accident occurred on the C. P. R. early this morning. It appears that engine No. 390 was sent out last night to assist a heavy freight as far as Flesherton. On returning the engine left in plenty of time to reach its destination before the morning express left at 5:40, but for some unexplained reason she did not do so, and collided with the express some two miles from town, mear Murray's cut.

COLLASION ON THE ERIE.
OIL CITY, Pa., Nov. 5.—A collision occurred yesterday morning on the Erie road at the lower end of the Third ward in this city between an incoming freight train and a backing switch engine. Engineer Tom Farrell was badly hurt; Fireman Patterson jumped and was injured; Brakeman Pat Ready, also on the switch engine, had one arm injured.

Ready, also on the switch engine, had one arm injured.

Ten oil tank cars were thrown into Oil Creek and took fire. The bridge was destroyed and fuel spread the fire to the Petroleum House, works of the Oil City Lumber and Coal Company and adjoining buildings. These were all saved in a damaged condition by prompt work. Six cars were drawn away; four with about 400 barrels of oil belonging to the Empire and Mutual works, were destroyed. The loss will aggregate probably $20,000, falling principally on the railroad company.
