Washington, D. C., July 21.-There is a bare possibility that American min-ers may be excluded from the Klendike gold region. Information has reached Washington to the effect that the Canadian authorities have under consider-ation the taking of steps to prohibit any but British subjects from working the Eldorado of North America. As the Klondike mines are without a doubt in Canadian territory, it is said at the state department that the Donion authorities have a right to prohibit the entrance of foreigners if they however. that the Canadians will refrain from taking a step of this character, as Britwere fatally injured and at least a doz- ish subjects have been allowed to mine the Alaskan territory, and besides, great difficulty would be experienced in distinguishing between Canadians and
