Manifestões will be published giving the reason for this act. Senor Zayas, the Liberal candidate for the vice-presidency, who presided at the meeting, says the decision was almost unanimous, there being no other course for the party to follow. The idea of withdrawing was presented at the last meeting of the Liberals, but consideration of the proposal was postponed awaiting events. It is now seen, the Liberals say, that would be useless to continue the campaign in view of the colossal frauds nited in the registration. Senor Zayas declares that in the San Lazaro ward of Havana there are about 3,000 actual voters, and that 12,000 have been
