Men Should Strike

the best possible arrangement between their cash account and their tailor—there is downright economy in getting clothes made for yourself, from the best materials, with good linings, and good workmanship. They hold their shape until the end, wear longer and give evidence of good tailoring up to the very last—provided, of course, that you order from the tailor who can guarantee. We are in the business for that purpose.

Many Articles Lost in the Panic

Yesterday's funeral processions were costly for Londoners, articles of value of all kinds and various sums of money being lost in the crowded downtown streets.

The London police do not believe that the losses resulted from theft, but that they were lost in the panic. Inquiry at the police station today elicited the fact that no complaints have been laid of theft or pocket-picking.

A large number of those who lost articles of value, however, have advertised their losses, and the list is a partial list.

Black leather bag, containing eyeglasses, etc.
Rhinstone black comb on Dundas street.

Gold bracelet set with amethysts, near Dundas and Richmond streets.
Purse containing money and key.
Diamond ring.
Pair of glasses and bracelet.

Purse containing small sum of money.
Gold bracelet.
Purse containing small sum of money.
Child's Alice blue jacket, brass buttons.

A $5 and a $2 bill.
Black leather bag containing rimless glasses.
Black handbag, sum of money, letters and return railway ticket.
Black and tan hound dog.
String of gold beads.
Gold brooch.
Belt pin, white and green.
Two books, agreement pad and bookkeeping book.
Pearl ring.

It is common to hear of losses at times when the streets are crowded as they were yesterday, but the list of lost articles on the occasion seems to be much larger than on any previous similar occasion.

Window Smashed.
A window in Jarvis and King's law office was smashed in by the jam.

A very large number of articles of jewelry and pocketbooks were lost in the crowd.

REPAYS VICTIMS OF NEW RAFFLES

Friend Hopes to Get Release for "Gentleman Highwayman" of Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Aug. 21. — Eighteen months ago a number of persons were held up and robbed on the streets of this city by a young man well dressed and remarkably polite to his victims.

For more than a week from one to three holdups were reported nightly and in every case by the same young man.

A few days after the robberies ceased a young man giving his name as William Hyde was arrested at Lafayette as a suspicious character, and investigation by the local detectives left no doubt that the "gentleman highwayman" was in custody.

He was brought here and identified by a dozen victims as the man who had held a revolver to their heads, all the time conversing fluently and on some occasions making profuse apologies for the act.

He was sent to the penitentiary for from one to fourteen years.

Today C. E. Channell, who says he lives in Gloversville, N. Y., called at the police station and asked for a list of the persons whom Hyde had robbed. He said he wanted the list that he might reimburse the victims.

When pressed for an explanation he said he was not related to the young man, but wanted to try to get Hyde a new start in life.

Channell said Hyde disappeared from Buffalo about three years ago and it was only a few months ago, Channell said, his relatives traced him to the Michigan City Penitentiary.

The shock of hearing of his son's crimes killed his father, Channell said, and the young man's mother had grieved over the matter until now she is near death.

Hyde is a fictitious name, Channell said, and he refused to give the prisoner's right name or address.

If the Gourlay piano had not been distinctive in tone, and artistic in construction, it would not have sprung so rapidly into prominence and gripped the hearts of the musical people of Canada as it has done. It may cost a little more than some other pianos, but from the test of endurance and tonal quality the Gourlay piano is undoubtedly the best value on the Canadian market today.

Another woman in this group became hysterical, and it was with great difficulty that she could be restrained. She was sent home in a carriage.

John Hopper, of 473 Dufferin avenue, was taken into the C. P. R. ticket office. He is covered with bruises, and is very stiff and sore. It was thought at first that he was killed, but he recovered and is now out of danger.

While attempting to assist an old lady to arise at the corner of Talbot and Dundas streets, Mrs. W. E. Davis, 362 York street, was carried off her feet. She fell and received a very painful gash on her forehead. The old lady was helped to her feet, but escaped serious injuries.

Mrs. Norman A. Roberts, 470 Adelaide street, was carried away in the crowd and badly shaken up. She was removed to her home in a cab.

While attempting to assist a woman and her child to arise, Mr. T. J. O'Meara, 174 Mill street, was knocked down. He kept his head, however, and held the child. The lady was pinioned to the ground by a man standing on her arm. Mr. O'Meara succeeded in getting her away, and then got her mother out. Both were bruised, but not seriously hurt.

Among the others who were reported injured were:

J. McKay, Egerton street.
H. Williamson, 255 Glenview street.
Mrs. Frank Campbell, Campbell street, who was knocked down, losing $15 from her purse.

Mrs. J. Taylor, of Cleveland, and many others whose names could not be learned.
