ASKIN STREET YOUTH CONDUCTS SERVICES

FOR SALE

Father-and-Son Meeting Held Sunday-Will Hold Banquet.

Father-and-Son services at Askin Street Methodist Church last night were in the hands of the teen-age boys of the congregation. The opening prayer and benediction were conducted by Hilton Struthers, and the congregational prayer was led by Douglas Goodge. The lesson was read by Arnold Webb, and the announcements and hymns were given by Mr. Fisher. The pastor of Askin Street, Rev. T. Crosby Morris, preached the sermon on the necessity of learning to. bear the yoke in one's youth. The text was taken from the Book of Lamentations: "It is a good thing for a man to bear the yoke in his youth." Mr. Morris said that the ox and the horse must be trained in their youth, and it was even more necessary to train a boy in the right path.

Parents were not given authority to force children to obey them by main force, but were intended to lead in the right path, as a boy looked upon his father as next to "Boys in their youth should be taught to overcome passions as only can succeed." continued Mr. Morris. "Those who fall are those who do not know self-control.

"Work is the only road to success. the boys will be filling positions of trust, so they should come early under the yoke of a religious

"Every man should recognize himself as a Christian. God has the right of way in the heart of man."

It was announced that on Thurs-day night next the boys will enter-

Mr. Houlding of the Y. M. C. A. as the speaker.
