Terrible Headaches and Dizziness

Miss S. Raphael, 287 Kenilworth Ave. N., Hamilton, Ont., writes: "I used to suffer from terrible headaches and dizziness. Last summer, while I was walking up a side street, I got a dizzy spell and fell in the middle of the road. An old gentleman helped me to get to where I was going and told me to get a vial of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. Well, I did, and they did wonders for me. I don't know how to thank you, as I don't get headaches or dizzy spells any more."

When your liver gets sluggish and inactive your whole health suffers, and the only way to keep well is to keep the liver active and performing its proper functions by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills.

Price 25c a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.-Advt.

Baby Show, Poultry Exhibit and Pushmobile Contest Conclude Boys' Hobby Fair

Dean Sherwood Fox, Rotary Club President, Will Present Medals and Other Awards To Seventy-Five Winners At Allen Theatre Tonight.

With the presentation of medals to-night to the winners of the Boys' Hobby Fair, which concluded Saturday night, the first exhibition of this kind to be held in Ontario will pass into memory as one of the most successful innovations ever staged in the City of London.

Dean Sherwood Fox, president of the Rotary Club, to which body the success is due, will present the prizes at the Allen Theatre, where 75 proud winners will march to the platform and receive their awards. The regular program will be carried out at the theatre, and the boys' winners, in addition to receiving the medals, will also be admitted free to the performance.

Saturday night saw the largest crowd of the four days in attendance at the armories, where the fair was held. The long gallery was crowded with spectators, and on the ground floor, passage was almost impossible the greater part of the evening. A program, in keeping with those rendered the first three days, was carried out, and to judge by the applause rendered the youthful performers, it was not only a success, but the boys were proficient.

The evening's amusement started with a display of clownery and pantomime by the boys of Knox church, the Ahmecks. These boys gave a splendid exhibition, and were seen to advantage on the elevated platform. They were followed by the Junior Leaders' corps from the Y. M. C. A., who in clown costumes carried out a successful series of tumbling, the art which all boys seek to master. Next came the famous Wingfoots, the Trail Ranger group of Knox church, winners of some 50 awards of one sort or another, all betokening championships. They were called on to make pyramids of many sorts, and the precision and surety with which they carried out their work, as well as the finish displayed by the completed pyramids, was an eye-opener to the many interested watchers. Miss May Gladstone, 16 Hope street, a talented young pianist, played the accompaniment for the boys, and also rendered several selections, both from the book of the Sherwood Manning Co., and the platform, during the afternoon and evening.

Orchestra Wins Laurels.
The music for the evening was supplied by the Wellington School Orchestra, and those in a position to judge state that the orchestra was by far the best musical attraction of the show. Under the able direction of Mr. James Cresswell they rendered a program of exceedingly difficult high-class music, including "Lutspiel Overture" (Keler-Bela); Overture "The Bridal Rose" (Laville); and Overture "Sounds From the Sunny South." A real feature of the program was a piccolo solo "The Linnet," played by Mr. John Darling, and accompanied by the orchestra, which drew rounds of applause from the listeners. A number of high-class marches were also played, including "The Orpheum," "Hall of Fame," "Marine Band," "The Regiment's Return," and others. Much praise was heard on all sides for the orchestra, for the exceedingly well-balanced harmony and the snap and decision with which the various numbers were played.

Wine Rabbit.
During the evening it was announced that Walter Boniface, 727 York street, had won the $25 wine rabbit donated by F. Nye. His was the nearest to the correct guess as to the number of the animal, which was 146. He guessed 150. Arthur Suchard, guessing 140, was awarded a young rabbit of the same stock.

As to the baby show, it was a case of baby carriages to the right, perambulators to the left, go-carts in the middle of the entrance to the armories. Saturday afternoon when the much-heralded affair was held.

Babies of all sorts and descriptions, but all of them boys, lined the long gallery where the judges took place. The judges worked all afternoon in one of the side rooms examining and inspecting the entrants in what is usually the most interesting competition held in any fair or exhibition. Three nurses were in charge and the infant's or child's history, age, etc., were registered with them. That there might be no question regarding the winner of the prizes, the judging itself was done by a medical practitioner, who with a sharp eye was able to recognize any minor defects, etc., which might escape the layman. In the opinion of the judge, however, the babies exhibited were without exception a fine lot and it was a difficult task to determine the one for whom the laurels were intended. Once in a while a baby would start crying, but most of them contained themselves and seemed to be enjoying the experience.

Whether the orchestra of the Collegiate Institute, which supplied the music during the afternoon, soothed the troubled minds of the infants is not known, but such it is to be hoped the music was of a high standard and the visitors showed their appreciation of the selections rendered.

Prize Babies.
The prize winners were as follows: Newton Durbin, age 10 months, 11 Wharfedale road, first prize and cup; Billy Teams, 14 months, 35 Emery street, second prize and cup; Howard Foxworthy, aged seven and a half months, 273 William street, third, silver cup.

With many crows and cock-a-doodle-does, the work of judging the many exhibits coming under the head of poultry, proceeded during the afternoon, the judges concluding their work at six o'clock. Many beautiful birds were entered in the show and the ones awarded the prizes were of more than usual merit.

The cup awarded by the London Poultry and Pet Stock Association to the school having the largest number of entries of poultry, entered by its pupils, was awarded to Waverley Road school with a total of eight. Tecumseh Avenue school was second with seven and will be awarded a medal. The cup, which will be won three times in succession before ownership passes to the winners. The prize winners in poultry are as follows:

Heavy fowl, white—Charles Renwick, Lord Roberts school, first. The medal for the best bird in the show was awarded to Arthur Johnson, Manor Park school, who exhibited a Rhode Island Red cockerel. The medal for the best Barred Rock went to Alfred Henshaw, 26 Swinward street, while Norman Axford captured the one awarded for the best Cochin hen. For smooth-legged Bantams, Billy Wilkey secured a medal and the medal for best hen and chick went to John Lindsay, Aberdeen school.

Poultry Awards.

The following is the list of prize winners:
Best in show—Arthur Johnson, Manor Park school.
Best Bantam, smooth-legged—Billy Wilkey, Boyd Memorial school.
Best Bantam, feathered legs—Norman Axford, Pipe Line school.
Best Barred Rock—Alfred Henshaw, 26 Swinward street.

Heavy fowl, white—Charles Renwick, Lord Roberts school.
Light fowl, parti-color—Earl Broughton, London Central school.
Earl Broughton, second; Charles Tuttle, third.

Heavy fowl, parti-color—Arthur Johnson, Manor Park school, first; William Fisher, Tecumseh road school, second; James Huxwith, London Central school, third; Fred Holland, O'Dell school, honorable mention.
Bantams, white—Ralph Speiran, Victoria school, first and second.
Bantams, black—Billy Wilkey, Boyd Memorial school, first; Norman Axford, second; Billy Wilkey, third; Norman Axford, honorable mention.

Bantams, buff—James Isaacs, Waverley road school, first; Earl Gage, St. George school, second; James Isaacs, third; Earl Gage, honorable mention.

Brooding hen and chicks—John Johnson, Manor Park school, hen and 18 chicks, first; Charlie Toon, Rectory street school, hen and 14 chicks, second; George Dean, Chesley avenue school, hen and 12 chicks, third.

Through crowds of people, who lined both sides of Dundas street, the pushmobile derby held in connection with the Boys' Hobby Fair, Saturday afternoon, was run to a successful conclusion. "Spark Plug" appropriately winning the junior final, and car No. 34 "copping" the senior final.

The race, which was run in heats, attracted many citizens, and great encouragement was given the youthful pilots in the cars. In every case the smaller vehicle came through with flying colors, leaving the big ones almost standing at the post. Starter H. G. Link got them well away, and down the pavement they drove, heater-skitter, with the crowd egging them on. One or two minor accidents marred the occasion somewhat, but not sufficiently to dampen the ardor of the boys.

Two "Spills."

In the first heat of the senior event one of the cars, after having crossed the finish line, ran into the crowd, knocking off a wheel, and in the final of the same event, when within reaching distance of the finish, two cars came together, or at least one swerved in front of the other, causing both to spill. No one was hurt, however, and although the boys who spilled impounded the judges to have it raced over again, this was not done.

The results were as follows:
Junior: First heat—Ernest Carpenter and Roy Baillie, first; Albert Lewis and Bob Smith, second.
Second heat—Kenneth Bull and Raymond Barnes, first; J. Partridge and Rigby Harris, second; Roy Smith and Hadley Tomlin, third.

Final—Kenneth Bull and Raymond Barnes, "Spark Plug," first; Jimmy Partridge and Rigby Harris, second; Ernest Carpenter and Roy Baillie, third.

Senior: First heat—Kenneth Ryan and W. Sageman, first; Kenneth Harris and Charles Switzer, second; Mervin Cody and Fred Trott, third.

Second heat—Leslie Norton and Harry Everett, first; Harold Harris and Fred Caton, second; Salton Curtis and James Pugsley, third.

Final—Leslie Norton and Harry Everett, first; Kenneth Harris and Clarence Switzer, second; K. Ryan and W. Sageman, third.

Judges—C. Thomas, C. Jones, and J. M. Watt. In every case the driver of the vehicle is the first-mentioned, the pusher being the second name.

Kingston, May 28.—After relieving the vessel of 40,000 bushels of oats, the Donnelly Wrecking Company succeeded in releasing the steamer Maplebranch, which went aground near Brophy's point. The vessel was brought to Kingston and is now unloading her cargo. Only a small portion of the cargo was damaged, the Maplebranch will go on the Collingwood Shipbuilding Company's dry-dock here for repairs.

FEAR MAGNETIC CURRENTS MIGHT FOIL AMUNDSEN

Associated Press Despatch.

Copenhagen, May 28.—Fear that Raoul Amundsen, who is to attempt a flight across the North Pole next month, may encounter unknown magnetic currents in the inner Arctic zone which will upset his compass and cause him to fly in circles, is expressed by experts writing in the Berlingske Tidende. They hope the explorer will choose a clear day for his feat, thus enabling him to dispose of his compass and take his position by astronomical observations.
