THE LONDON FIGHT.

Liberals Greatly Concerned Over the Coming Election—The Prohibition Issue—Conservatives Condent.

While the Liberal leaders in Toronto are professing to take little interest in the London election, it is quite certain that they are most anxious about it, and will raise a large amount of money to defeat Mr. Essery if that be possible. The Conservatives, however, are confident that they are going to win with Mr. Essery, and will send some of their best speakers into the riding. The Patrons, of course, while they are not directly concerned in London, are, so they express themselves, very anxious to see the Conservatives win in order that the present division of parties in the House be maintained.

As things now are the Liberals hold
