

STABLE GLEANINGS.

Horse races for this column will be returned from any part of the country.

The fastest mile ever trotted in Michigan was Lord Clinton's mile in 2:08, at Lansing on Saturday.

RONSMAN, Mr. Segar's two-year-old colt, won a five furlong maiden race at Saratoga last week, beating a number of good ones.

Victorino's came within a head of winning a mile and a sixteenth race for Mr. Segar at Saratoga, the other day. He was beaten by Lehman.

The steeplechase rider Charlie Brown, of Toronto, who was injured while riding Tom Flynn at Saratoga, has been taken to the Montreal hospital.

The old time true horse Kingston won a 3/4 furlong race at Jerome the other day. He started with odds of four to one chalked up on him.

BOB TUCKER, trainer of the Fleischman Stable, won enough money playing roulette at Saratoga to purchase the good runner Cactus for $5,000.

DIRECTUM, it is said, is not up to form. With a good track and perfect weather a mile in 2:08, at Chicago, was the limit of his speed, a few days ago.

ALIX and Directum have been matched. The contest will take place at the Bigby Track, Portland, about September 26th, and will be for a purse of $10,000.

THERE is a movement on foot to introduce winter trotting in the South. It is proposed to lease the track at Montgomery, Ala., for that purpose and give an extended meeting.

CHARLIE BOYLE led the good two-year-old filly, My Favorite, by Hinyar-Favor Day, at Saratoga. She was exercising and accidentally ran into a post, and fractured her skull.

The match race between the two-year-old pacers, Directum and Carbonate, at Chicago, resulted in an easy victory for the son of Direct, who won in 2:12 by an eighth of a mile.

GIL CERRY, by Almont Boy, made a new record for New England on August 25th, by trotting the third best of the free-for-all over the half-mile track at Haverhill, Mass., in 2:13.

THIRTY-SEVEN stakes, with $65,000 added, will be offered by the California Jockey Club for the meeting this winter. One fixture will be a guaranteed stake of $10,000 for a mile and a quarter handicap. The meeting will begin on December 27th.

The $10,000 stallion Ontario, 2:07 1/2, by Shadeland Onward, a twin brother of the first while two-year-old pacing champion, Ontario, died last week at the Leah Stock Farm, Goshen, Ind. He earned this year $5,300.

ROBERT J., the great pacer, showed that Joe Patchen, who recently went a mile in 2:06, was not in his class at Chicago. The three heats were paced in 2:45, 2:06, 2:04. Patchen was never within halting distance.

At the three great circuit trotting meetings—Detroit, Buffalo and Cleveland—the stable from California, owned by Munroe Salisbury, won $18,302. The Village Fable, stable in a good second with $15,950. Goldsmith has won $14,800, and Budd Doble $9,306.

M. F. DWYER lost two match races at Jerome Park, on Wednesday of last week. His horse Armitage was beaten by Pachino easily. Armitage was at three to five and Pachino seven to five. Glenmoyne won from Stone Nellie, but was disqualified for carrying short weight.

S. A. BROWN & Co., of Chicago, owners of the trotting mare Belle Versa, who has been in the charge of trainer Budd Doble, have entered suit against that individual for $10,000 damages, alleging that he had not given an opportunity to show her speed and therefore was incurred by them.

The best colt running at the Hawthorne Track, Chicago, is undoubtedly the royal bred Oakwood. A week or so ago he equalled the mile record for the track, which has stood for many years at 1:41, and a few days later he demolished the track record at a mile and one-eighth, which he placed at 1:55.

The authorities of the French trotting turf have decided to bar from all international purses all horses over six years old. This is hard on the American trotters in France, as all the good performers are over that age. Owners in France who wish to win these valuable purses will have in future to import fast two-year-old stallions and fillies.

ALL-ROUND SPORT.

Anson, the Chicago ball player, is forty years old.
