

the starting pole Waller led over half a length in front of Dandy, the latter a length in advance of Moonstone, Kelso fourth, Redding fifth, Senator M. sixth. A merry run up the homestretch, and Waller won the race by a length, Kelso second, half a length ahead of Dandy, Moonstone fourth, Redding fifth, Senator M. sixth. Time—2:21. Had he also made his run sooner the race might have terminated differently.

MOONSTONE AND PARIS.

On Saturday last the fourth race was a two-handicap steeplechase for a purse of $500, of which $100 was to be given to the second horse. Horses having run after 25th of June for any race closed in 1877, at any other than the Saratoga course being excluded. The race was over the usual course, between two runs and three-quarters in length. Four horses started. These were Charles Reed's chestnut gelding Trouble, by Liverston, dam Kate McDonald, aged, 160 lbs.; J. Smythe's brown horse Waller, by Harrah, dam Queen of Clubs, 5 years old, 140 lbs.; John Lawler's bay horse Moonstone, by Asteroid, dam Alabama, aged, 133 lbs.; and C. J. Alloway's bay gelding Paris, by Colossus, Jr., dam Ly Knight of St. George, 5 years old, 130 lbs. Trouble was the favorite, selling for $850; Waller second, bringing $300; Moonstone and Paris selling in a field for $110. Two starts were made and the horses went away at a very slow pace. Trouble was away first, Waller second, Moonstone third, Paris fourth. The horses changed position as they ran to the wall, which was the first jump, fifty yards away. Moonstone was over first, two lengths ahead of Trouble, the latter two lengths ahead of Waller, who was two lengths in advance of Paris. The horses ran in this order up the east side alongside of the fence, then jumping a brush fence, once they ran on to the regular track, jumped a hedge beyond the half-mile pole, then keeping close to the fence, jumped a hedge midway of the lower part of the field. Keeping on they came to and jumped a stone wall at the three-quarter pole, Moonstone having showed the way, Waller second, Trouble third, Paris bringing up the rear. They went on without changing positions and the middle of the field, jumping a fence, then to the brush at the big tree, and then over the north section of the water jump, Moonstone leading two lengths in front of Waller, who was two lengths ahead of Trouble, the latter about the same distance ahead of Paris. Going on in the same order they jumped the two fences of the sectional track, then a stone wall in the west field, next a brush fence, and then went across the track and down into the outer field in front of P. Lorillard's stable. Moonstone kept the lead, but Paris took second place, Waller being third, Trouble fourth as the horses passed over the obstacles in front of A. Belmont's stables; but coming over the rails of the regular and fractional tracks into the east field again Waller had resumed the second position, as before. Running through the middle of the west field, where the horses jumped the two brush fences, Moonstone was two lengths, Waller second, Trouble third, Paris fourth. In the order given the horses then jumped the wall at the furlong pole, then the west section of the water, and going over the two brush fences landed in the west field close together, Waller taking the lead, Moonstone second, Trouble third, Paris falling back rapidly. The leading trio jumped the stone wall in the middle of the field without daylight between them, and sweeping around the field to the right, jumped two brush fences. At the latter Moonstone bolted, after getting over, and lost half a dozen lengths. This left the race to be settled between Trouble and Waller. They jumped the wall at the starting place of three-quarter mile races—side and side, then a brush fence behind the judges' stand, and running straight up the side of the chute they jumped a stone wall and then the fence into the regular track, Moonstone being entirely out of the race, barring accidents. As Trouble and Waller jumped into the regular
