

receive them back. He has forgotten to whom they were lent:

Pearson on The Creed.

Harold Browne on The Articles.

Local Intelligence.

Qu'Appelle Station.

The most important event during the last month was, of course, the meeting of the Synod, a full report of which will no doubt appear in another part of the Messenger. The ladies of S. Peter's congregation had, as usual, gone to considerable trouble to make the visit of the clergy and lay delegates, to our town, as pleasant as possible. Seldom, if ever, has the Government Hall looked so pretty as it did on that occasion, and the tea provided by them in a most hospitable and sumptuous manner, was very acceptable to their guests after a long and tiring afternoon's work. The Incumbent takes this opportunity of publicly thanking all the ladies who assisted, and particularly Mrs. Gordon and Mrs. Talbot, who by their indefatigable labors contributed so much towards making the day a pleasant one.

Another great success was the entertainment given by members of our congregation on Wednesday, June 10th. The members of the Women's Guild were very anxious that steps should be taken to clear off the remainder of the debt due to the Executive Committee on the Building Fund of S. Peter's Church, and at their invitation Mrs. Walter Ridsdale kindly undertook to get up a dramatic programme. Robertson's Comedy "School" was selected, and much pains was taken by all engaged in it to make it a success. The performance itself exceeded the most sanguine expectations, and was also a financial success, for after all expenses are paid, the amount realised will be within a few dollars of the sum needed to clear off the debt—a very gratifying result to those who went to so much trouble in the matter. The cast was as follows: Lord Beaufoy, Mr. L. Strong; Dr. Sutcliffe, Mr. E. Henham; Beau Farintosh, Mr. F. D.W. Johnson; Jack Poyntz, Mr. A. D. Dickson; Mr. Krux, Mr. Harrison; Mrs. Sutcliffe, Miss Boyce; Bella, Miss Winter; Naomi Tighe, Mrs. W. Ridsdale; School girls, the Misses Sheppard and the Misses Boyce. To these, and particularly to Mrs. Ridsdale, our hearty thanks are offered for a very enjoyable entertainment, and for the valuable assistance rendered to our church funds.

BAPTISM.

May 31. In S. Peter's pro-Cathedral, Douglas Stafford Lewis, son of Percy Copeland and Clara Annie Jerrold.

May 31. Elizabeth Nellie, daughter of Henry and Rose Elie Howse, at Qu'Appelle.

MARRIAGE.

At McLean, by the Rev. H. S. Akehurst, William John Fanning to Agnes Hagell; both of McLean.

Regina.

We have every reason to believe that it will be possible to build our new S. Paul's Church this summer. $4,000 were raised in Eastern Ca-