NOTICES

At the last College Board meeting a resolution was passed requesting the Board of Queen's Avenue Methodist Church to permit their pastor, Rev. J. F. Betts, to devote the necessary time to canvassing on behalf of the College Funds. The Principal of the College, Rev. W. J. Sipprell, will supply the pulpit during the pastor's absence.

Diligent efforts will be put forth to pay off the accumulated floating debts.

In your Century Fund offerings do not forget Columbian College.

WHY THE PARSON WAS POPULAR.

An old comrade of the civil war, the "fighting parson," we called him, for he was as brave as he was loyal, delighted in telling this story about himself.

"When I entered the ministry," he said, "my good old Methodist mother was greatly rejoiced, for the desire of her heart was fulfilled. Soon after my assignment to a charge in a small country district, an old woman of my congregation paid a visit to my native village. My mother forthwith called upon her, and began eagerly inquiring as to my success in my profession.

"The old lady assured her delighted listener that I was doing finely, and got on amazingly well with everybody.

"Well, now," said my mother, triumphantly, "I always knew John would make a good preacher!"
"reach, did you say," said the old lady, "he ain't much of a preacher, but you'd ought to see him eat!"
