It appears from the above table, that of the 294,003 Emigrants who landed at Quebec during the period it embraces,—England furnished 71,069,—Ireland 185,731,—Scotland 33,266,—and all other countries 8,937.

Twenty-three thousand one hundred and ninety emigrants landed at Quebec during the year 1840,—of whom 12,350 came to the late Province of Upper Canada. Their appearance indicated a greater degree of health and comfort than could be reasonably expected after their exposure to so many hardships as must unavoidably fall to the lot of persons who abandon their homes in the United Kingdom, to become settlers in a Province so distant.

The only complaints which reached the Emigrant Agent during the past season, were confined to the over-crowded state of the Barges, and the length of the passage between Men real and Kingston,—evils which are not again likely to recur, as extensive preparations are making by the Forwarding merchants, to add to the number of Tow Boats and Barges, both on the River and on the St. Lawrence. Very few of the emigrant were persons of capital, and it was found necessary to grant Government assistance to nearly one half of the 12,350 above stated.

The Emigrant Agents at Toronto, Kingston, and Bytown, speak in the highest terms of the
