

142
follows, with a strong interpellation to make one's choice now between two eternities, while there is time for to-morrow it may be too late.

There is also a Hymn on the ten Commandments of God and the Precepts of the Church, on the well known air of Unser Herr Immerdar.

Besides these, the Christian hymns are not forgotten and find their place in the