The Chateau Frontenac.

A magnificent Fireproof Hotel on Dufferin Terrace. One of the handsomest hotels in the world, superbly situated, elegantly furnished and a cuisine unequalled. The Chateau Frontenac, with its new addition, giving over three hundred rooms, is complete and modern in all its appointments, the Canadian Pacific Railway Company having spent over a million and a quarter dollars on the building alone. Rooms en suite or single. Rates, $1.50 per day and upwards. Special rates for prolonged visits. Address, Manager or J. A. Sheffield, Supt. Canadian Pacific Hotels, Montreal.

THE PLACE VIGER
 Montreal, Canada

for tourists. Rates $3.50 to $5.00 per day. Special rates for a prolonged stay. Address, P. Poulin, Manager, or J. A. Sheffield, Supt. Canadian Pacific Hotels, Montreal.

This new hotel, lately built by the Canadian Pacific Railway in connection with their new passenger station, occupies an entire block. It faces the Viger Gardens, and is up-to-date in all its appointments; a delightful home
