"BR'ER QUICKSILVER, wot you puttin' dem brickbats in you' coat-tail pockets for? Gwan kill somebody?" "No; I allers slips sumpin' heavy in my coat-tails 'long 'bout dis time, when de heavy win's 'gin ter blow, soze dey stay whar dey b'longs." "My hair," mused Van Smythe, as he carefully consigned his two remaining wisps to their appointed places, "reminds me most painfully of a fool and his money." DEAR SIR,—I think it is a privilege to recommend Haggard's Yellow Oil as a sure cure for chapped hands, swellings, sore throat, etc. I recommend it to all. MRS. GEO. WARD, Josephine, Ont. "Yes, these here colleges are great institutions," remarked Uncle Silas, reflectively. "What with their baseball and football, and rowin' of boats and their studies, I tell you a college course nowadays is as good's a lib'ral eddication." MAN is a good deal like a fish. You know the fish would never get into very serious trouble if it kept its mouth shut. "HAVING used Burdock Blood Bitters for general debility, weakness and lack of appetite, I found it a safe cure." HENRY HOWARD, Brownsville, Ont. AHEAD OF THE OLD MAN.—"Arthur," said a good-natured father to his young hopeful, "I did not know until to-day that you had been whipped at school last week." "Didn't you know it, pa? I knew it at the time." THE legend "048" is well known to most writers in this country. It is the number of Esterbrook's most popular pen, the Falcon. A LEAP-YEAR PROPOSAL.—"Miss Rox made a proposal to me last night." "Ha! You're in luck." "She proposed that I spend my evenings elsewhere, as she expected soon to become engaged." DEAR SIR,—I can highly recommend Haggard's Pectoral Balsam. It cured my daughter of a cough she had been troubled with since childhood. She is now twelve years old. MRS. M. FAIRCHILD, Scotland, Ont. MRS. BILLOS: John, the doctor says I need a change of climate. Mr. Billus (absorbed in his newspaper): That's all right, Maria; it is going to be twenty degrees colder to-morrow. DEAR SIR,—I have used Burdock Blood Bitters for dyspepsia, and have found it to be the best medicine I ever used. I could not eat without suffering from a terrible burning pain in the pit of my stomach. I used six bottles of B. B. B. and am glad I did so or I should have been in my grave to-day, it completely cured me. I take a bottle every spring and would not be without it if it cost $10 a bottle. DAVID PEDLEY, Morley, Alb. FIRST Wealthy Citizen: Well, the secret of my success, sir, was push, simply push. Second Wealthy Citizen: Ah, that's the difference, you see. The secret with me was "pull." DEAR SIR,—I take pleasure in testifying to the great healing qualities of your medicines. I had the misfortune to injure my leg, and through cold and neglect it broke out in a running sore, my leg became inflamed and very painful, and the discharge was very offensive; various remedies failed to help me when I had the good fortune to try your B. B. B. and Burdock Healing Ointment. Before I had finished the second bottle the discharge had stopped, and in two weeks more my leg was as well as ever. I feel justified in recommending it to the public as a cure if only given a fair trial. GRO. LAURIE, Portage la Prairie, Man. SAGACITY.—Husband (at the theatre): See how pale Mrs. Upwell is. I never saw her so affected by tragedy before. Wife: It isn't that; her back hair is coming down.
