

In addition to the above I have to acknowledge a conditional promise of $100 from a member of the Brantford church, the promise of a new organ from Mr. John R. Barber of Georgetown, the gift of 101 new Congregational Hymnals from the Yorkville church, and books for a young mens' library from Mr. John Clark, Guelph; Mr. John Ott, Brantford; Miss Wood, Maxville; Mr. Willie Copp, Toronto.

To the best of my knowledge the list given above is correct. It was impossible in some cases to get the names of donors, but in reckoning and entering the monies received, I usually had the assistance of the pastor or some officer of the church. Should any inaccuracy be detected, I shall be glad to hear of it in order that it may be corrected. All the money collected has been handed over to the treasurer of the Home Missionary Society.

In conclusion I would say that there are a number of our churches that I have been unable to reach owing to the limited time at my disposal. My hope is that in spite of this they will be practically enlisted on the side of our work in British Columbia.

Cobourg, Jan. 12th, 1888.
