GOSPEL TENT.

“And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.”—Isa. lxx. 24.

ROR some years past we have incurred considerable expense for the hire of tents in which to hold meetings among the Volunteers in Camp and at the Exhibition Grounds. We believe if we owned a tent, it could not only be utilized for the purposes named, but might be used for Gospel Meetings in different parts of our city. A tent of suitable dimensions, made of first rate material and fully equipped for our work, would cost not less than $150.
